

Moving into Goldney Hall

We are looking forward to welcoming you to Goldney Hall. Please read on for everything you need to know about arrivals and share this information with anyone who will be bringing you.

Arrivals day

The official arrivals day is Sunday September 17th between 10.30-18.30. Please check in at Goldney Hall. Your Welcome Week will begin on that day. You will need to book an arrival time via your online induction, sent soon after accepting your offer.

Students and staff will help you settle in. Arrivals weekend is a very busy time for everyone so unless it is an absolute emergency please save any queries about your accommodation for welcome meetings. Many of our residences have very little or no parking so please do your utmost to stick to your arrivals slot

Early arrivals

The earliest moving in date is Tuesday September 12th. You must book an early arrival via your online induction. There will be a charge for all nights prior to September 15th. Please note that some residential services or facilities including catering will not be available prior to your official arrivals day. Late arrivals can also be booked via the online induction.

Traffic information

Like many major cities Bristol is subject to roadworks throughout the summer and this year is likely to be especially difficult because of alterations to the City Centre and the Bristol Half Marathon on Sunday 17th. You are advised to check the BBC local road information prior to travelling.

What to bring

Full details of what you should bring are at: bristol.ac.uk/accommodation/undergraduate/arrivals

It is always best to travel light, there will be lots of opportunities to personalise your room once you get to see it and please bear in mind that hanging and storage space may be limited. We provide kettles, microwaves and toasters. We do not provide bedding, bed linen or towels, or cooking utensils, crockery or cutlery.

For Goldney Hall, you will need single bedding and this, along with kitchen packs and cleaning packs, can be ordered online before September 7 to be waiting for you when you arrive. Please order at: studentroompacks.co.uk/bristol
