

Coming to Manor Hall

We are looking forward to welcoming you to Manor Hall. Please read on for everything you need to know about your arrival.

Arrivals Day

The official Arrivals Day for Manor Hall is Saturday 17th September 2016 between 10am and 5pm. All your events and activities for Welcome Week will begin on that day.

You will be able to book an arrival time via your online induction, which you will receive in late August.

When you arrive at Manor Hall there will be students and staff on hand to help with luggage, direct you to your room, give you your key and help you settle in. Arrivals weekend is a very busy time for everyone so unless it is an absolute emergency we would ask you to save any queries about your accommodation for the induction and welcome meetings.

Early arrival / Late arrival

If you have to move in earlier than the official Arrivals Day (Saturday 17th September), the earliest moving in date for Manor Hall is 12th September. Early arrival must be booked in advance via your online induction. Please note that not all residential services or facilities will be available prior to the official Arrivals Day. Late arrival should also be booked via your online induction.

Traffic information

Like many major cities Bristol is subject to road-works throughout the summer and this year is likely to be especially difficult because of alterations to the City Centre. You are advised to check the BBC local road information prior to travelling.

What to bring

Full details of what you should bring are at: bristol.ac.uk/accommodation/undergraduate/arrivals

It is always best to travel light. There will be lots of opportunities to personalise your room once you get to see it and please bear in mind that hanging and storage space may be limited. We do not provide bedding, bed linen or towels, or cooking utensils, crockery or cutlery.

For Manor Hall, bedding and bed linen, along with kitchen packs and cleaning packs, can be ordered online up to 8 days prior to Saturday 17th September to be waiting for you when you arrive on Arrivals Day. Please order at: studentroompacks.co.uk/bristol
