

1st Annual Bristol Lecture in East Asian Studies
Thursday 12th February 2009

Meghnad Desai, one of the world's leading development economists, is a Professor Emeritus at the London School of Economics and a member of the House of Lords. At the LSE, Professor Desai has been Director of the Development Studies Institute and was the Founding Director of the Centre for the Study of Global Governance. His numerous publications include, Marx's Revenge (Verso 2002), Global Governance and Financial Crises (Routledge 2003) and Development and Nationhood (Oxford University Press 2005).

Time: 4.30-6.00pm, followed by drinks reception.

Venue: Peel Lecture Theatre, School of Geographical Sciences, University of Bristol, University Road, Bristol. BS8 1SS.

Booking: Places will be reserved on a first come first served basis. Please register your interest by contacting Felicity Gaskin (Felicity.Gaskin@bristol.ac.uk, 0117 331 8008)

This Lecture is sponsored by the Department for International Development to celebrate 30 years of China's Economic Reform