

DIASPORA IDENTITY STORIES

Seminar series 2010 - 'Identities' University Research Theme in association with CENTRAL - Centre for Narratives and Transformative Learning - Graduate School of Education, University of Bristol

Spring term 2010

All events start at 5.30 p.m.

held at:

Graduate School of Education

35 Berkeley Square, University of Bristol

Summer and Autumn events will include stories of Kurdish, Taiwanese and African/caribbean diasporic identities

ffi: jane.speedy@bristol.ac.uk

January 21st 2010

Number our days: Jewish diaspora identity stories

A screening and discussion of the award -winning film 'Number our days' which explores the anthropologist Barbara Myerhoff's work with the elderly Jews of Venice Beach CA during the 1970s.

(This event, ending at 7.00p.m., is held in association with DAVAR- the Jewish Cultural institute of Bristol)

February 23rd 2010

Ararat Associations: Armenian diaspora identity stories

A screening and discussion of Egoyan's film "Ararat" alongside Dick Tahta's autobiographical book 'Ararat associations'. (Dick Tahta was member of CeNTraL)

(This event will end at 8.30 and will include the screening of a full length film and a refreshment break. Copies of 'Ararat Associations will be on sale)

March 16th 2010

Academic diaspora identity stories

A conversation with academic staff from the Graduate School of Education (including Frances Giampapa, Guoxing Yu, Susan Robertson and Sibel Erduran) about the shifting national, cultural and other identity stories of people engaged in academic work.

(This event will end at 7.00 p.m.)