

GSoE Festival of Education '14 Event Programme

Presenting a series of inspiring twilight talks and interactive sessions centered around the theme of 'professional development and school based learning'.

The new national curriculum: a way forward or a step back in time?

9 June, 5 - 7pm. Tim Oates (Cambridge Assessment), Sarah Baker (Redland Green), Clare Christie (Ashley Down) and Head of School Professor Rosamund Sutherland will debate the new curriculum.

Breaking news and building bridges

10 June, 5 - 7pm. Sue Littlemore (EMC), Jonathan Drori CBE and Dr Paul Howard-Jones. (GSoE). Offering positive solutions to how journalists and academics can be friends with media experts.

'Action Research' with schools

11 June, 5 - 7pm. Jean Dourneen, Dr Frances Giampapa (GSoE), Liz Jenkins, Dr Ruth Fielding (Sydney). 'Action Research' is currently encouraged in schools as a means for staff to research their own practice.

Encouraging creativity in early years education

12 June, 5 - 7pm. Pete Moorhouse (artist) and Dr Frances Giampapa (GSoE).

Exploring the many aspects which contribute to making a rich and creative learning environment.

Learning to think like designers and engineers: the 'Future Brunels' three years on 16 June, 4:45 - 6:45pm. Students from Merchants' Academy, Bedminster Down, Cotham and Redland Green.

The 'Future Brunels' will outline the programme using the photographs and records they have produced.

CANCELLED - Celebrating 20 years of the SENCO

17 June, 5 - 7pm. Helen Knowler (GSoE), SENCOs and their pupils.

In this session the GSoE will celebrate the work of SENCOs and their pupils from three schools in Bristol.

'Spirited Arts' poetry slam

18 June, 3 - 5pm. Lucy Kelly, Janet Orchard and Lorna Smith (GSoE), partnership teachers and students.

'Spirited Arts' is a competition for students that invites them to respond creatively to spiritual themes.

Is science magic? Is magic science?

18 June, 5 - 7pm. Stuart Nolan (Research Magician) and Dr Jocelyn Wishart (GSoE).

Exploring the impact of using illusions in the classroom whilst performing several tricks and experiments.

Learning through research: Doctoral and postdoctoral researchers' showcase

19 June, 5 - 7pm. Julie Betenson, Adeela Shafi, Emma Bent, Vanda Papafilippou, Perry Walters.

Providing a flavour of the work being undertaken by researchers within school.

Booking and further information
bristol.ac.uk/education/research/edfest
Laura Griffiths - 0117 331 4291

All events will take place in the
Graduate School of Education,
35 Berkeley Square, BS8 1JA

9-15
June
2014
UNIVERSITIES WEEK
Ideas for Life

 University of BRISTOL

Graduate School of Education