6th September 2016

Dear New Postgraduate Research Student,

Congratulations on gaining a place in Experimental Psychology at the University of Bristol. We are pleased to welcome you to the School and look forward to meeting you. Please find enclosed information on Welcome Week.

Monday & Tuesday – Faculty events

On Monday we have the Faculty registration event in the Great Hall, Wills Memorial Building. Please refer to your letter from the Faculty of Science about what you need to do before this event and what you need to bring with you. Tuesday morning is the Faculty induction from 9am-11am in the Tyndall Lecture Theatre (1.11), School of Physics.

Wednesday – School events

Please see attached timetable of events in Experimental Psychology. Please report to the reception desk in Experimental Psychology where you will be directed to the relevant room.

Thursday – Welcome party

You are invited to the School's Welcome Party! Food and drink will be available and you will have the opportunity to meet all of our new students.

Friday – Bristol SU

Friday is set aside for the University of Bristol Union Welcome Fair where you can join up for clubs and societies.

Handbook

We will provide you with a student handbook at the course introduction on Wednesday, please retain this as it contains essential information to help you throughout the course.

Once again we look forward to meeting you.

In the meantime should you have any immediate queries please contact our School Office email postgrad-psychology@bristol.ac.uk or telephone +44 (0) 117 928 8425. We also encourage you to join our Facebook page and student Facebook group:
