

Richard Little elected a Fellow of the British Academy

Richard Little (Emeritus Professor, formerly of the Department of Politics) has been elected a Fellow of the British Academy in recognition of his outstanding contributions to international relations theory.

Richard's research focuses on the examination of international relations from a world historical perspective and his current project seeks to reassess and revise the Eurocentric implications of the 'English school' account of the global expansion of the international society.

I am sure that you will join me in congratulating him on this well-deserved FBA.
