

Corporate Governance Roundtable Conference organised by the University of Bristol in association with UCL Centre for Commercial Law and Macfarlanes LLP

Executive Remuneration and Board Responsibilities: A New Paradigm?

Wednesday 25th November 2009

Macfarlanes LLP, 20 Cursitor Street, London EC4A 1LT

MACFARLANES

PROGRAMME

10am: Welcome address

10:05am: Executive remuneration 1: designing effective pay structures

Chair: Marc Moore, University College London

- Reward structures under fire in the UK financial services sector
Michael McKee, DLA Piper,
- Performance related pay for executive directors
Cliff Weight, MM & K / Independent Remuneration Solutions,

11:15am: Coffee

11:30am: Executive remuneration 2: responsibilities of institutional shareholders

Chair: Arad Reisberg, University College London

- Executive remuneration and institutional investors: highlighting the myth of responsible ownership
Charlotte Villiers, University of Bristol,
- Relying on the rationally uninformed: Why it doesn't make sense to rely on shareholders to control board remuneration
David Kershaw, London School of Economics

PROGRAMME

12:45pm: Lunch

1:30pm:

Board structures and the Combined Code

Chair: Brenda Hannigan, University of Southampton

- Raising corporate governance standards in the UK following the financial crisis
Roman Tomasic, University of Durham
- Are public company boards designed to curtail irresponsible risk-taking?
Marc Moore, University College London

2:45pm: Tea

3pm:

Corporate governance and financial capitalism

Chair: Charlotte Villiers, University of Bristol

- Paddy Ireland, University of Kent, (title tbc)
- The globalization of corporate governance
Alan Dignam, Queen Mary University London
- The Relational Business Charter
Jonathan Rushworth, Relationships Foundation

4:30pm

End of conference

CONTACTS

Dr Marc T. Moore

UCL Law Faculty
marc.moore@ucl.ac.uk

Kimberlee S. Moran

Assistant, UCL Law Faculty
k.moran@ucl.ac.uk