We are attracting a new audience and inspiring them to learn.

‘This is my 5th course. I have been doing them consecutively since they first started. At first I was worried that I would run out of ones that interested. No chance. New, even more fascinating topics keep coming on stream. I am addicted. Tip? If you find something a bit too difficult or even less interesting and you get no help from this forum, don’t worry – just skip it and move on.’ Student

‘On a previous Future Learn course, Exploring our Oceans, I found the advanced options really enhanced the knowledge of the course.’ Student

‘I am so grateful to have an “Advanced” Option. That is something often missing in other online courses (not here so far), as I have found. I look forward to trying this option out.’ Student
