

Connected Histories of Empire Conference Programme

15-16 July 2013

Venue – Priory Road Complex (Social Sciences), University of Bristol

Hosted by the Centre for the Study of Colonial & Postcolonial Societies, University of Bristol and generously supported by the University of Bristol's Research Strategy Fund.

NB - Please access the Social Sciences Complex via the main entrance on Priory Road. This brings you into Level 2 of the building, where the café area is (registration takes place here) and where rooms 2D1, 2D2 and 2D3 are located. To find rooms 1F12 and 1F5 please follow the signs down the stairs/elevator to Level 1 Block F.

For directions and maps please see <http://bristol.ac.uk/maps/directions/>

For help finding accommodation please see <http://bristol.ac.uk/maps/stay.html>

Monday 15 July

9am	Registration and Welcome
9.30am-10.30am	Keynote 1– ‘Cinema Markets Empire’ – Lee Grieveson, UCL – room 2D1
10.30am-11am	Tea/Coffee – café area, Priory Road complex
11am-12.30pm	Session 1  Panel 1 – Crossing Imperial Boundaries – room 1F12  Panel 2 – Mobility and Migration 1 – room 2D2  Panel 3 – The British Empire between the Wars – room 1F5
12.30pm-1.30pm	Lunch – Student Common Room, 11 Woodland Road
1.30-3pm	Session 2  Panel 4 – Students, Scholars, Science – room 1F12  Panel 5 – Anti-slavery – room 2D2  Panel 6 – Empire and Development in the Twentieth Century – room 1F5

- 3-3.30pm Tea/Coffee – café area, Priory Road complex
- 3.30-5pm Session 3
- Panel 7 – Museums, Representation, Memorialisation – room 1F12
- Panel 8 – Culture and Empire – room 1F5
- Panel 9 – Colonial Film – room 2D2
- 5.15pm-6.15pm Screening of selected colonial films from the British Film Institute – Wickham Theatre, Department of Drama: Theatre, Film, Television.

Tuesday 16 July

- 9am-10.30am Session 4
- Panel 10 – Latin America and Empire – room 1F12
- Panel 11 – Place and Network – room 1F5
- Panel 12 – Networks and Circulation – room 2D2
- 10.30am-11am Tea/Coffee – café area, Priory Road complex
- 11am-12pm Keynote 2 – ‘Why Global History is Imperial History’ – John Darwin, Nuffield College, Oxford – room 2D1
- 12pm-1.30pm Session 5
- Panel 13 – Migrated Archives – room 2D2
- Panel 14 – Networks and their Limits – room 1F12
- Panel 15 – Law, Punishment and Power – room 1F5
- 1.30pm-2.30pm Lunch – café area, Priory Road complex
- 2.30-4pm Session 6
- Panel 16 – Questioning Empire – room 2D2
- Panel 17 – Mobility and Migration 2 – room 1F12
- Panel 18 – Connected Histories of Decolonisation – room 1F5

4pm-4.30pm	Tea/Coffee – café area, Priory Road complex
4.30pm-5.30pm	Keynote 3 – ‘Connected Histories of Indian, British and American Reformers in the Age of Empire’ – Clare Midgley, Sheffield Hallam – room 2D3
5.30pm-5.45pm	Farewell and closing remarks

There is no registration fee for this conference. Speakers and panel chairs do not need to register, but please email connectedhistoriesofempire@yahoo.co.uk if you have any special dietary or access requirements. Those who wish to attend who are not giving a paper or chairing are asked to register by emailing connectedhistoriesofempire@yahoo.co.uk and giving their name, email address, institutional affiliation (if any) and specifying which days they would like to attend. Places are limited.

We have arranged dinner for the evening of 15 July at Thali Cafe (1 Regents Street, Clifton - <http://www.thethalicafe.co.uk/thali-locations/clifton/>). The meal will cost £25 per head, and will include 3 courses, coffee and wine. You will be able to pay cash for this on the day. Places are limited. We need to know numbers for the dinner in advance, so if you would like a place, or have any questions about the dinner, please email Emily Baughan emily.baughan@bristol.ac.uk ideally before the end of May.