

Faculty of Arts PhD Scholarships

The Faculty of Arts is pleased to be able to offer a number of full UK/EU PhD Scholarship (fees and maintenance grant) or International Fees Bursary's (fee award only) to candidates demonstrating exceptional research potential. Scholarships are renewable for up to three years (where offered full-time) subject to satisfactory progress.

Full-time UK/EU PhD Scholarships will include fees at the 'home/EU' student rate and maintenance in line with RCUK fee and stipend rates for 2019/20 (£14,777 in 2018/19) for three years, depending on satisfactory progress.

Full-time International Fee PhD Studentships will include full fees at the International student rate for three years, dependent on satisfactory progress.

In order to apply for a scholarship, you must complete an application form for the programme you wish to apply to. In the funding section of the form, please tick the box that indicates you wish to be considered for an award. You must ensure your application includes all the supporting documentation including a research statement. Please refer to the admissions statement of the course you wish to apply for full details of requirements.

We regret that we cannot consider applications for funding received after the deadline.

Eligibility

- Meet our standard admissions requirements for the PhD course you are applying to- please refer to the individual prospectus page for entry requirements.
- Applied before the 12 noon (GMT) on Monday 11th February 2019 for our September 2019 intake. Please note that the application must be submitted complete in order to be considered for the scholarship.
- The applicant will demonstrate promise for doctoral study, academic excellence and will be considered on the strength of their research proposal.
- Received an offer of study before April for which must be accepted before or at the same time as receiving any offer of award.

Deadline for applications: 12 noon (GMT) on Monday 11th February 2019. Please note that the application must be submitted complete in order to be considered for the scholarship.

Successful applicants will be informed by 31st of April 2018 at the latest.

Please note that candidates who have been awarded alternative full awards are not eligible for this award.