The project:
We are currently recruiting for a fully-funded co-tutelle studentship working in any area of world literary studies or literary internationalisms. Part of an institution-wide partnership between the University of Bristol and Macquarie University in Sydney, Australia, the successful candidate would be supervised by Professor Madhu Krishnan and Associate Professor Hsu-Ming Teo, whose expertise spans world literary studies, imperial and post-imperial cultures, popular literature, literary internationalisms and cultural materialism. This studentship is offered as a co-tutelle arrangement between Bristol and Macquarie and the successful candidate would be expected to spend two years of full-time study at each institution over the course of a four-year studentship, with the first two years based at the University of Bristol. Successful candidates will be expected to engage with both supervisors’ areas of expertise in their proposals in devising an independent and original research project and plan.

Application Deadline: Sunday 8th December 2019

Interview Date: Week commencing 16th December 2019

The start date of the course is 27th January 2020.

How to apply:
Please make an online application for this project at http://www.bris.ac.uk/pg-howtoapply. Please select English (Macquarie) PhD on the Programme Choice page. If you cannot choose January 2020 as a start date for any reason, please choose September 2020 as the start date and we will amend it internally for you. You will be prompted to enter details of the studentship in the Funding and Research Details sections of the form.

Candidate requirements: A master's qualification, or international equivalent. Applicants without a master's qualification may be considered on an exceptional basis, provided they hold a first-class undergraduate degree (or international equivalent). Applicants with a non-traditional background may be considered provided they can demonstrate substantial equivalent and relevant experience that has prepared them to undertake their proposed course of study.

Funding: The University of Bristol will award fees and stipend to RCUK rates for Home/EU students for the two years at Bristol. Macquarie University will award full fees and standard stipend for the two years at Macquarie.

Contacts: For information about the programme please contact Professor Madhu Krishnan (madhu.krishnan@bristol.ac.uk). For information or queries about the application process please contact the Faculty of Arts Admissions team (artf-pgadmissions@bristol.ac.uk).
