Student success

We would like to congratulate the International Foundation Programme class of 2016-17. The majority of these students have now progressed to an undergraduate degree at the University of Bristol.

Of the students who completed the International Foundation Programme in 2016-17:

- more than 64 per cent progressed to a degree at the University of Bristol
- more than 71 per cent progressed to a degree at a Russell Group university
- more than 80 per cent progressed to a degree at a UK university.

One hundred per cent of students on the Arts and Humanities pathway progressed to a degree at the University of Bristol.

One hundred per cent of students who wanted to progress to a law degree are now studying law at the University of Bristol.

Applications are open

Applications for our International Foundation Programme are now open. Students hoping to join us in September 2018 can find full details on the website.

bristol.ac.uk/ifp/apply

Key information

Key information about the International Foundation Programme is available in English and in translation. Our web page for parents and advisors can be read in Español, Français, 中文简体, Русский and عربية. It gives details about pathways, progression and entry requirements.

bristol.ac.uk/ifp/advisors

Stay connected

If you want further updates, you can connect with us on social media:

facebook.com/bristoluniversity
twitter.com/ChooseBristolUG instagram.com/universityofbristol

You can find more information at bristol.ac.uk/ifp
On 1 November 2017, we announced the winners of this year’s Futures Prize. The winners were Eun Suh Choi (left), Chawon Kang (centre) and Jason Park (right). Each student was awarded a £1,500 fee reduction.

First impressions
We asked two of our new students to give their first impressions of Bristol and of the University. Here is what they said:

Serge Durdyev – Turkmenistan

“There are so many people with different backgrounds and they all are part of the community. I also like the diversity of restaurants. You may try cuisines from all over the world.

“The staff at the University are very friendly and helpful. They are always happy to answer any questions regarding your course, university and the life in Bristol in general.

“I look forward to acquiring new knowledge and gaining the necessary skills to succeed at my undergraduate degree.”

Jingyi Li – China

“I am really loving Bristol. The main reason is having a beautiful landscape in Bristol. With the autumn, I can see the colour of maple leaves turning from red to yellow.

“Making some new friends has been fantastic. Talking to native speakers not only makes new friends, it also helps with studying another language.

“My tutors are very nice and helpful. When I go to the class, I feel effective. I am looking forward to making progress in the year.”

You can find more information at bristol.ac.uk/ifp