Study Abroad programmes

Bristol offers a highly flexible and personalised Study Abroad experience, with different programmes to suit your English language ability and a wide range of academic fields. All our programmes are available for a single semester or a full academic year.

The most common options for native English speakers, or those who already meet our English language requirements, are the Study Abroad (general) and Study Abroad (subject-specific) programmes. For those who want to enhance their English language skills for academic purposes, you can also take English language units alongside your other subjects.

If you are applying to Bristol as an exchange student, you can check with your home university or the Global Opportunities team at Bristol to find out which programme you have been nominated to. Direct-enrol students and independent applicants can choose to join any of our programmes.

English language requirements
For full details of the English language requirements and accepted certificates for each programme, please visit our website. bristol.ac.uk/study-abroad

Study Abroad (general) programme
September and January start
You will choose units from across the University to create a personalised academic programme. You can take units in your major and minor, as well as other subjects that interest you. Our six faculties offer a wide variety of subjects, which can be combined to create a diverse and intellectually stimulating programme.

Study Abroad (subject-specific) programme
September and January start
You will be nominated by your home university to a department at Bristol which best matches your current degree programme. You will take the majority of your units within your host department, with the option to take a small number of credits in other academic areas of interest or from our Centre for Academic Language and Development.

STABEL (Study Abroad with English Language)
September start
For students who don’t currently meet the English language requirements for the Study Abroad (general) or Study Abroad (subject-specific) programmes, STABEL combines Study Abroad with a pre-sessional English language course starting in June or July. This intensive English language course will prepare you for study in Bristol and lasts for six or ten weeks, depending on your current English language level. If you successfully complete the pre-sessional course, you will progress onto the Study Abroad (general) or Study Abroad (subject-specific) programme in September.

Create your programme

Make the most of your time here by creating a tailored academic programme that works for you.

Study level
Undergraduate degrees in the UK are three-year programmes, and as a Study Abroad student you can choose units (classes) from all three years. Occasionally, some departments open up master’s level units for Study Abroad students. You can check the full list of available units in each department in our online study guides.

For subjects that are new to you or that you haven’t studied in-depth at home, first-year units are the most suitable. Second-year units are the most common for students taking their major/minor abroad, and third year units are suitable for students in their major subject if they are close to graduation.

Credits and course load
You will take 60 Bristol credits per semester, which is a full course load. Most units at Bristol are either 10-credit or 20-credit, so you will typically take three to six units per semester.

Science and Engineering subjects tend to have more 10-credit units, whereas Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences tend to have 20-credit units. Your home university will be able to advise you about how the credits transfer back to your degree.

Finding your units
The terminology used at Bristol might not exactly match what you are used to at your home university. Please read the guidance on our website about how to create your programme – we recommend that you try a few different search terms when looking for units in our unit catalogue. You can sometimes find units that match your requirements in unexpected areas.

Example study plans
For students applying to the Study Abroad (general) programme, here are just a few examples of the way you can combine subjects from across our faculties to suit your academic needs and interests.*

Study Abroad (subject-specific) students are required to take the majority of their units in the department to which they are nominated by their home university.

Bristol’s environmental research is world-class. Our geography research is ranked first in the UK, and earth systems and environmental sciences is second (THE analysis of REF 2014). The University’s Cabot Institute is a leading centre for innovative, interdisciplinary research into solutions to environmental challenges.

*Sample units are indicative only. Specific class combinations cannot be guaranteed.

Student life

With our outstanding facilities, active Students’ Union and extensive support network, at Bristol you can enjoy the best of student life.

Get involved
Every student at the University of Bristol is a member of the Students’ Union (SU). Led by students, for students, Bristol SU is a vital part of our world-class university experience.

The SU organises events, represents your views, and runs more than 400 clubs and societies for different interests and hobbies. You will also be able to join the International Students’ Network, which hosts events, runs campaigns and represents international students. Joining a club is a great way to meet new people while you’re here, and Study Abroad students often say taking part really helps them settle in and make friends.

Sports, exercise and health
Bristol’s first rate sports and fitness facilities on campus will help you kickstart and maintain a healthy and active lifestyle during your time here.

Our memberships give you access to our gym, fitness classes, studios and swimming pool. You can also play sport socially or competitively by joining one of 70 student sport clubs on offer and if you play professionally, develop with our Performance Team.

Health and wellbeing
Bristol’s holistic approach to wellbeing will support you to realise your full potential. Our comprehensive network of resources and student services is ready to support you if and when you need it. You can use our online Request Support Form to contact our services.

• Our Student Wellbeing and Residential Life teams are friendly and approachable, providing you with advice and coordinating the right support for you;
• The Student Counselling Service provides confidential, high-quality, short-term, individual and small-group counselling;
• We have a full NHS (National Health Service) doctor’s surgery on campus for students who live in the local area;
• Other services include our Multifaith Chaplaincy, Disability Services and extensive online resources.

Your space on campus
There are plenty of places around the University to relax, socialise and get support. The SU Living Room provides a dedicated space to relax and meet friends – right at the heart of the campus.

Global Lounge
The Global Lounge is a cultural hub that celebrates all. On arrival, the team will help you to settle in, giving you the chance to meet other students, and provide practical support. Situated at the heart of campus, the Global Lounge is a place for all Study Abroad, other international and UK students to connect and learn from each other, encouraging community among students and staff through social events, activities, and a regular Language Café.

Global Opportunities team
While you are studying at Bristol, the Global Opportunities team are your first point of contact. We are here to support you with any concerns you have, academic or personal. We also have a student-facing space in the Global Lounge so you can drop in at any time without making an appointment.

Accommodation

Our wide range of residences ensure you find a safe and supported home here.

Your home away from home
September entry exchange students from institutions outside of Europe and all non-exchange students are guaranteed an offer of a place in University accommodation, if you apply by the deadline. Exchange students from institutions within Europe are not guaranteed an offer but are still welcome to apply and also given support to find private accommodation. For all January entry students, we cannot offer an accommodation guarantee but we make every effort to place as many students as possible in a University residence or help you find private accommodation.

University-allocated accommodation is either catered, which includes a meal plan, or self-catered with full kitchen facilities. Most bedrooms are single, but you have the option to share. All rooms are furnished, with either an en suite or a shared bathroom, and every residence provides free internet and 24-hour security.

You’ll be living with a mix of British undergraduates (usually first years), International students and other Study Abroad students. Accommodation is available for students with disabilities, health needs, cultural or religious requirements as well as single sex and alcohol free accommodation options. Please note that we cannot guarantee to offer you a flat that meets your exact preferences.

Support in your accommodation
Our Residential Life Service is your support network in University accommodation. Each Student Residential Village has a Residential Life Team, who are trained to provide you with a wide range of advice and help.

Private accommodation
If you prefer to live outside of University allocated accommodation and rent privately, the Accommodation Office is available to help. This is easier for students coming for the full academic year, as most rental contracts are for a minimum of nine months. Bristol SU provides a specialist letting service for students, and there are many other property providers across the city.

‘Living in University accommodation is a great way to interact with people and provides the perfect environment to begin friendships.’

Emma, University of Western Australia
East Residential Village

The East Village residences are based in and around Bristol’s city centre. All are within walking distance of the University campus, and benefit from an endless supply of shops, cafés and bars. Nearby is Bristol’s vibrant Harbourside, which hosts many festivals and events and is a popular area for nights out.

North Residential Village

Our North Village is a campus of accommodation housing over 2,000 students, set in 65 acres around two miles from the University campus — a 20-minute bus trip or a pleasant 40-minute walk. A bus pass is included in your accommodation fee. The site includes extensive gardens and space for socialising and relaxing. It houses most of our catered residences and our second sports complex.

West Residential Village

Our West Village residences are mostly based in and around Clifton — a popular and picturesque suburb of Bristol known for its traditional architecture, café culture and green spaces. Clifton offers a mixed selection of busy shopping and nightlife as well as quiet residential areas. These residences are mostly around 15 minutes’ walk from campus.

Social life and sports

Each University residence has a social committee run by students, which organises a range of social events, fun activities and sporting leagues. We also offer a programme of physical activity across campus for all students, with regular exercise classes and other sessions right on your doorstep.
