

Welcome, students from Nigeria

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has an international reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

Bristol is home to 6 faculties, made up of 29 academic schools and departments. We offer more than 600 undergraduate and postgraduate courses across a comprehensive range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to nearly 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates, with around one in four of our students coming from outside the UK.

Around 60 students from Nigeria currently study here, and we would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, safe city with a rich history and distinctive culture. The city is truly multicultural, home to people from 187 countries, speaking 91 languages.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at the Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our student clubs include the African Caribbean Society, Afrolit Society and over 400 more for different interests and hobbies.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes more than 300 students from or living in Nigeria, who are employed at organisations around the world.

'Bristol was one of the few universities that satisfied my criteria of being a top university for engineering, offering integrated master's courses, and being in a fairly large city. So I was happy to be accepted here. Electrical engineers are in high demand in the UK, so this opens a lot of doors for me.'

English language requirements

If your first language is not English, we will require proof of your English language ability. We accept a wide range of qualifications and tests. Different courses need different English language levels; specific requirements are listed on individual course pages online.

If you have studied at a Nigerian high school or university, you will not usually need to provide additional evidence of your English language ability.

Scholarships

We support international students from around the world with programmes such as our Think Big scholarship scheme. We are investing £2 million in University of Bristol scholarships for overseas students in 2022.

Funding opportunities for students from Nigeria also include Commonwealth Scholarships and Chevening Scholarships. For the latest information and to apply, visit bristol.ac.uk/international-scholarships

Education agents

Bristol has agreements with various education representatives, or agents, in Nigeria including UKEAS Nigeria and SI-UK Nigeria.

Agents can help you to apply, but using one does not put you at an advantage or disadvantage when we consider your application.
