'Employment Status in the Gig Economy: Courts and Legislation'
Centre for Law at Work Exploratory Workshop

Friday 5th April 2019
Lady Hale Moot Court Room, 8 – 10 Berkeley Square, University of Bristol

Full Programme

PANEL 1 (13:00-14:00)
Grassroots organising in the gig economy: Protest and Resistance’
Manoj Dias-Abey (Bristol), Julia Lopez Lopez (University Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona), Jason Moyer-Lee (IWGB)

PANEL 2 (13:00-14:00)
A new statutory definition for the worker category: where next after Taylor?
Simon Deakin (Cambridge), Mark Freedland (Oxford), Tonia Novitz (Bristol), Vincenzo Pietrogiovanni (Lund)

15:00 – 15:30 - Refreshment Break

PANEL 3 (15:30-16:30)
Tax, social insurance, and employment status
Abi Adams (Oxford), Eusebi Colas (University Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona), Judith Freedman (Oxford)

PANEL 4 (16:30-17:30)
Case Law on employment status: recent developments in Deliveroo and Uber
Alan Bogg (Bristol), Michael Ford QC (Bristol and Old Square Chambers), John Hendy QC (Old Square Chambers)

17:30 – 18:00
Final session: reflections and concluding thoughts from Advisory Board Members
Anne Davies (Oxford), Keith Ewing (KCL), Colin Fenwick (International Labour Organisation)

18:00-18:30 - Drinks

6.30-7.00pm Keynote from Sandy Fredman (Oxford)

The Fair Work Initiative for Platform Workers: Comparative Perspectives