

Kersty McCourt

Kersty is a lawyer and human rights professional with over eighteen years' experience leading human rights, justice reform and civil society programmes that resulted in precedent setting judgments and important policy changes. She has led a number of coalitions and from 2017-2020 was the co-chair of the Human Rights and Democracy Network in Brussels. For over 11 years she was a senior advocacy advisor with the Open Society Justice Initiative and prior to that worked for the Danish Institute for Human Rights in Kigali and Copenhagen. Kersty qualified as a solicitor with Taylor Wessing Solicitors in London and is a member of the Law Society of England and Wales. She has a degree in Biological Sciences and a master's in Human Rights and Democratisation and has designed and taught a number of master's courses on human rights defenders at the Global Campus for Human Rights in Venice, Yerevan and Beirut.
