

Policy & Politics conference 2014:
The challenges of leadership and collaboration in the 21st Century

Conference Programme

Marriott Hotel, College Green, Bristol 16 -17 September 2014

Tuesday 16th September

8.30-9.30 Location: Royal Foyer
Registration and coffee

9.30-9.40 Location: Lancaster Room
Welcome address:

9.40-10.40 Plenary Speaker: Professor Chris Ansell (University of California, Berkeley, US) Collaborative Governance: Why, When, and How?

10.40-11.00 Location: Royal Foyer
Coffee

11.00-1.00 Panel session 1

THE POLITICS OF JOURNAL EDITING: INTELLECTUAL GATEKEEPERS AND STRATEGIC POSITIONING

Panel Organiser and Chair: Matthew Flinders (University of Sheffield, UK) & Sarah Ayres (University of Bristol, UK)
Participants to be confirmed

COPING WITH COMPLEXITY IN GOVERNANCE PROBLEMS: MIRRORING OR SIMPLIFYING?

Panel Organiser and Chair: Guy Peters (University of Pittsburgh, US) & Jon Pierre (Gothenburg University, Sweden) Eva G. Heidbreder (Heinrich-Heine University Dusseldorf, Germany) Turning Legal Discrepancies into Administrative Procedures: Reducing Complexity by Simplifying Circumvention
Victor Galaz (Stockholm University, Sweden) Complexity, Connectivity and Governance – a multi-theoretical perspective
Felicity Matthews (University of Sheffield, UK) Off-target? The Rise and Fall of Targetry as an Instrument of Delivery
Per Lagrid & Lise H. Rykkja (University of Bergen, Norway)
Governance for complexity. How to organise for handling of 'wicked issues'? The case of internal security and welfare

administration in Norway

EXPLORING THE LOGICS OF DEPOLITICISATION

Panel Organiser and Chair: David Howarth (University of Essex, UK)

Matt Wood (University of Sheffield, UK) State Theory, Governance Systems, and Everyday Discourse: Systematising the Study of Depoliticisation

Graham Walker (University of Essex, UK) 'A Balanced Energy Mix'? Depoliticising Demand and the Return of Nuclear in British Energy Policy

Steven Griggs (De Montfort University, UK) and David Howarth (University of Essex, UK) Depoliticisation, Aviation Expansion and the Davies Commission

Eleanor Mackillop (De Montfort University, UK) Exploring Conditions of Power and Resistance in Organisational Change Politics: A Hegemonic and Discursive Approach

GLOBALISATION

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Richard Tudway (Centre for International Economics Ltd., UK) Tomorrows Corporation

Amy M. Hochadel (King's College London, UK) Local Elected Officials Go Global: Beyond Agency & Structure

Flavio Sanza (Swansea University, UK) New perspectives on globalization

Ceren Pekdemir, Sophie von Gagern, Pieter Glasbergen & Ron Cörvers (Maastricht University, Netherlands) Handling fragmentation in global governance: A valuation of the role of meta-governors

ENVIRONMENT: GOVERNING LAND, FORESTS AND NATURAL RESOURCES

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Clare Barnes & Frank van Laerhoven (Utrecht University, Netherlands) The right to influence: how NGO coalitions are shaping the implementation of the Forest Rights Act in India

Sarah Tadlaoui (University Externado of Colombia, Colombia) Land governance and collaboration: the case of policy-induced communal land in Colombia and Brazil

Khensane Hlongwane (University of the Witwatersrand, South Africa) Examining the capacity of non-state actors in public policy making in South Africa. A case study of the beneficiation policy of South Africa

Jarmo Kortelainen (University of Eastern Finland, Finland) Complex policy of the energy use of forests

POLITICAL LEADERSHIP AND LEGITIMACY

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Uyi Kizito Ehigiamusoe & Sergius Nnamdi Okoro (National Institute for Legislative Studies, National Assembly, Abuja, Nigeria) Examining “Finance-Led Growth Hypothesis” in Nigeria: Challenges of Leadership and Policy

Neta Sher-Hadar (Sapir College, Israel and Mandel Leadership Institute, Israel) The Impact of Internal Changes in Government Institutions in the age of Governance: The Case of the Israeli State Comptroller

(NB: The state comptroller is the states' auditor (the Head of the General Accounting / Accountability Office in Israel).

Miklos Sebok (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Hungary) The manufacturing and solution of crises as political capital accumulation: The case of the U.S. debt ceiling debate

Henriette Müller (Humboldt University Berlin, Germany) From Walter Hallstein to Jacques Delors and José Barroso Leadership Potential and Performance of the EU Commission President

Brenton Prosser & Richard Denniss (Australian National University, Australia) Policy in the margins: new issues for parliamentary legitimacy and accountability

PUBLIC PRIVATE PARTNERSHIPS

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Primer C. Pagunuran (University of the Philippines, Philippines) The future is privatized – a glimpse of the Philippines infrastructure policy amidst public-private sector divide

Director Sang Won Hahn, Joseph Lee (Public-Private Joint Regulation Advancement Initiative, Prime Minister's Office, Republic of Korea) South Korea's Regulatory Reform Drive through Public-Private Partnerships

Siobhan O'Sullivan (University of Melbourne, Australia) The Challenges of Regulating a Partially Privatised Service: a study into the effectiveness of Work Programme

Anthony Onyishi (University of Nigeria, Nigeria): Public private partnership in Nigeria: A Study of the “Neighbourhood Watch” Security Policy in Enugu State

CITIES, URBANISATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Olanrewaju Olaoye (University of Lincoln, UK) Collaborative governance: The case of the governance of mass transportation in London

Graham Squires (The University of Birmingham, UK) The Future Financing of Development in Cities

Manisha Priyam (Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, India) Social Policy in an Indian City-state: Federal Institutions, Competitive Populism, and the Left out Public

José G. Vargas-Hernández (University of Guadalajara, Mexico) Shrinkage of Rural Areas as a Result of Urbanization and Migration Processes in Mexico

PARTICIPATION, DELIBERATION AND COLLABORATION

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Rod Dacombe (King's College, London, UK) Participation in local democracy: Answering democracy's critics

Finbarr Livesey (University of Cambridge, UK) Do the public want to contribute to policymaking?

Cécile Hatier (University of Wolverhampton, UK) Is compromise always the most critical component of successful political collaboration?

Amanda Crompton (University of Nottingham, UK) The process of 'organizing' in public deliberation: 'Ordinary folk' and their attempt to put the brakes on High Speed Rail?

1.00 - 2.00 Location: Palm Court
Lunch

2.00-3.00 Plenary Speaker: Professor Erik-Hans Klijn (Erasmus University, Netherlands) Public leadership between 'front' and 'back' 'stage'

3.00-3.20 Location: Royal Foyer
Coffee

WHAT DIFFERENCE DO DIRECTLY ELECTED MAYORS MAKE? SESSION 1

Panel Organiser and Chair: David Sweeting (Associate Editor, Policy & Politics, University of Bristol, UK)

David Sweeting (University of Bristol, UK) & Robin Hambleton, (University of the West of England, UK) What difference does a directly elected mayor make? The introduction of a directly elected mayor in Bristol, UK

Howard Elcock (Northumbria University, UK) Do mayors make a difference? In their own words...

Christine Cheyne (Massey University, New Zealand) Directly elected mayors in New Zealand: the impact of intervening variables on enhanced governing capacity

Colin Copus & Michael Dadd (De Montfort University, UK) New and established mayoralties: lessons from local governance from two English case studies

STRATEGIC SPATIAL PLANNING STRATEGIES: TERRITORIAL PACTS AND COLLABORATIVE SYSTEMS OF GOVERNANCE

Panel Organiser and Chair: Alan Townsend & Lee Pugalis (University of Northumbria, UK)

Lee Pugalis, Alan Townsend & Ania Ankowska (University of Northumbria) 39 new Strategic Economic Plans across England: Pitfalls and Potentials

Gill Bentley (University of Birmingham, UK) Integrative Territorial Planning

Duncan Bowie (University of Westminster, UK) The Challenges of London's growth: Strategic planning and the failures of governance in the Greater South East

Hannah Hickman & Martin Boddy (University of the West of England, UK) Collaborative planning in a growth region: the Cambridge Phenomenon

Joyce Liddle (Aix-Marseilles Universite) Summarising the panel discussion

MULTI-SECTOR GOVERNANCE AND POLICY CHALLENGES IN ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Ralitsa Hiteva & Jim Watson (University of Sussex, UK) Multi-sector governance and coordination: the case of electricity, water, ICT and private vehicles in the UK

Seyed Mohamad Sadegh Emamian (Edinburgh University, UK) Understanding British Electricity Policy Process: Paradigm Ambivalence and Technological Tension

Sarah Hartley (University of Nottingham, UK) The influence of non-state actors on risk assessment policy: The case of

EFSA's public consultation on the environmental risks of genetically modified animals

Rémi Schweizer (University of Lausanne, Switzerland) Law activation strategies and creative responses in environmental policy implementation

NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANISATIONS AND CO-PRODUCTION

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Max French (University of Stirling, UK) Understanding the Contributions of Service Users and Communities to Public Service Outcomes

Caitlin McMullin (University of Birmingham, UK), Fergus Lyon (Middlesex University, UK), Leandro Sepulveda (Middlesex University, UK) & Ian Vickers (Middlesex University, UK). User engagement and hybridity: The case of public service social enterprises

Lee Gregory (University of Birmingham, UK) Co-production as resilience or resistance?

Linda Milbourne & Ursula Murray (Birkbeck, University of London, UK) Policy and politics in privatising public services and impacts on non-governmental organisations: does size matter?

PUBLIC MANAGEMENT AND NEGOTIATION

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Guy-El-Karim Berthome (AgroParisTech, France) Narrowing down the negotiation power issue in stakeholders dialogue by measurement

Lihl Lahat (Sapir College, Israel) Quality improvement in social care service, leadership and trust: Outcome-oriented management project, Ministry of Social Affairs and Services

Justin Waring (University of Nottingham, UK) Leading the Public Sector Diaspora: framing conversion, collaboration and contestation in the transition from public to private sector work

Ally Raza Memon & Tony Kinder (University of Edinburgh, UK) The changing nature of what managers do and their training and development in new public service systems: the challenges and opportunities of collaboration

Steven Parker (Local Authority Manager and DSocSci University of Bristol) The public service ethos and multi-agency collaboration

QUALITY OF LIFE, POVERTY REDUCTION AND FAIRNESS

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Lina Martínez & Marianella Ortíz (Icesi University, Colombia) Using subjective data to measure government performance and life satisfaction: The case of Cali - Colombia

C. Mawuko-Yevugah & Joseph K. Darmoe (Ghana Institute of Management and Public Administration, Ghana) Towards a

Productive Society? Public Sector Pay Reform in Ghana
Oyetola Oniwide (Oduduwa University, Nigeria) The Challenges and Prospects of National Poverty Eradication Programme in Nigeria

EXPERIMENTATION, 'GOOD POLICIES' AND POLICY NETWORKS

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Jiri Melich (KIMEP University, Kazakhstan) Political Constraints to Public Policy Experimentation: What Works?

Erik Hans Klijn & Iris Korthagen (Erasmus University Rotterdam, Netherlands) The mediatization of governance: an overview

Natalie Wojtarowicz (Southern Cross University, Australia) The battle for brains: How incorporating a policy network perspective can advance the study of skilled migration policy

Dan Bristow & Steve Martin (University of Cardiff, UK) Challenges for evidence-based policy

Ir. Sander van den Burg & Trond Selnes (LEI Wageningen UR, Netherlands) Informational Governance: the impact of social media on policy making

CRITICAL POLICY STUDIES

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Peter Barberis (Manchester Metropolitan University, UK) Virtue ethics and the idea of public service

Genevieve Fuji Johnson (Simon Fraser University, British Columbia, Canada) The Governance of Sex Work: From Antagonism to Agonism

Emily St. Denny & Paul Cairney (Nottingham Trent University, UK & University of Stirling, UK) Preventing what? Preventing how? The development of contemporary preventive policy aimed at prostitution in the UK

Rhys Jones, Mark Whitehead (Aberystwyth University, UK) & Jessica Pykett (Birmingham University, UK) "Politics done like science": towards a critical theory of the psychological state

Geetanjali Gangoli (University of Bristol) & Martin Rew (University of Birmingham) Strategic co-option' or collaboration? Feminists and the State in India

HEALTHCARE

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

LAM van de Goor (Tilburg University, Netherlands), H Spitters (Tilburg University, Netherlands), D Rus (Babes-Bolyai University, Romania & University of Medicine and Pharmacy, Romania) P Sandu (Babes-Bolyai University, Romania & University of Medicine and Pharmacy, Romania) & C Juel Lau (Copenhagen University Hospital, Denmark) Understanding collaboration, networks and leadership to innovate local public health policy development in three European regions. Systems

analysis of policy development processes in Romania, Denmark and The Netherlands.

Iestyn Williams, Jenny Harlock, Glenn Robert (University of Birmingham, UK) The perils of health care decommissioning: findings from a delphi study

John Boswell & Jack Corbett (University of Southampton, UK & Griffith University, Australia) Stoic Democrats? Anti-politics, elite cynicism and the policy process

Vera-Karin Brazova & Piotr Matczak (Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic) Common Challenge - Different Response? The Case of H1N1 Influenza

Jane Hughes (Manchester University, UK), Helen Chester (Chester Department of Health, Australia), Paul Clarkson (Manchester University, UK), Sue Davies (Manchester University, UK) & David Challis (Manchester University, UK). Piloting the Common Assessment Framework – service re-design through local collaboration?

POLICY AND EDUCATION

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Rob Hulme & Jane McKay (University of Chester, UK) “I used to be a Commissar but now I’m an Auctioneer”, the Changing Role of Directors of Education and Children’s Services 2007-2014”

Anders Hanberger (Umeå University, Sweden) Managing evaluations in local school governance in Sweden

Eva Lloyd (University of East London, UK) Co-producing early childhood policy: the impact of policy and politics

Joanna Bragg; Helen Gunter; David Hall; Colin Mills (University of Manchester Institute of Education, UK) Researching and theorising consultants and consultancy in contemporary English schooling

7.00

Location: Palm Court
Conference dinner

Wednesday 17th September

8.30-9.00 Location: Royal Foyer
Coffee

9.00-10.00 Location: Lancaster Room
Plenary Speaker: Professor Helen Sullivan (University of Melbourne, Australia) Collaboration as the new normal? Global trends, public policy and everyday practices

10.00-10.30 Location: Royal Foyer
Coffee

10.30-12.30 Panel session 3

ROUNDTABLE ON LEADERSHIP AND POLICY ANALYSIS

Panel Organiser and Chair: Claire Dunlop (University of Exeter, UK)

Discussants: Dr Mike Rowe (University of Liverpool, UK); Dr Angela O'Hagan (Glasgow Caledonian University, UK); Dr Liz Richardson (Manchester University, UK); Professor Robin Hambleton (University of the West of England, UK); Dr Tobias Jung (University of St Andrews, UK)

WHAT DIFFERENCE DO DIRECTLY ELECTED MAYORS MAKE? SESSION 2

Panel Organiser and Chair: David Sweeting (Associate Editor, Policy & Politics, University of Bristol, UK)

Thom Oliver (Oxford Brookes University, UK) Assessing the directly elected mayoral model in Bristol: an empirical investigation of the contrasting definitions of the role of a directly elected mayor

Alex Marsh (University of Bristol, UK) Local political leadership takes a post-political turn? On the resilience of the elected Mayor as a governance solution

Robin Hambleton (University of the West of England, UK) Directly elected mayors: a route to progressive urban leadership?

Petr Jüptner (Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic) Debate on Direct Election of Mayors and its Impact: Connections between Austria, Slovakia and the Czech Republic

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Paul Clarkson & Sue Davies (University of Manchester, UK) Priorities for resource allocation in social care: the actual process of allocation versus the views of adults with a learning disability

Miriam K. Damrow (University of Applied Sciences Dusseldorf, Germany) Child Protection as a challenge of leadership
Inge Vermeesch & Marc Craps (HUB@KU Leuven, Belgium)
Katrien Termeer & Art Dewulf (Wageningen University & Research, Netherlands) Exploring Complexity Leadership development processes: the role of relational development in the leadership dynamics of multi-actor governance settings

COLLABORATION: LOCAL GOVERNMENTS SESSION 1

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Cristina Stanus (University of Sibiu, Romania)
Collaborative governance and political representation at the second tier of local government: an analysis of five new democracies
Anne Mévellec & Félix Grenier (University of Ottawa, Canada) Training local elected officials: Improving public governance between democracy and expertise
Hyejin Choi & Soyoung Lee (Korea) Unsatisfied with the Alternative Life Style? the Local Community Governance in Korea
Philip Willis (University of Technology, Sydney, Australia)
Imposition of top-down reforms on NSW local government

MIGRATION AND IMMIGRATION

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Made Mastianta Nadera (University of Indonesia, Jakarta, Indonesia) & Nyoman Mastiani Nadra (Bali State Polytechnic, Bali) Conviviality Revisited: Overcoming the Challenges of Migration to Tourism Sites in Bali, Indonesia
Eve Hepburn (University of Edinburgh, UK) Scotland's 'hidden' policy competence: immigrant integration and policy divergence in Scotland since devolution
Gina Netto, Maria Hudson, Mike Noon, Filip Sosenko, Philomena de Lima & Nicolina Kamenou-Aigbekaen (Heriot-Watt University, UK) Migration, ethnicity and progression from low-paid work: lessons for skills policy
Erica Consterdine (University of Sussex, UK) Interests, Ideas and Institutions: immigration policymaking under Labour

'THE INTERNATIONALISATION OF CITIES AND REGIONS: LEADERSHIP, COOPERATION AND THE POLITICAL CHALLENGES OF POLICY NETWORKS' (SESSION 1)

Panel Organiser and Chair: Tassilo Herrschel & Peter Newman (University of Westminster, UK)

Tassilo Herrschel & Peter Newman (University of Westminster, UK) Cities as International Actors and the Role of Leadership

Igor Calzada (University of Oxford, UK) Post-independence: Comparing city-regional devolution strategic scenarios in Scotland, Catalonia and the Basque Country

Nicolas Maisetti (Ecole des Ponts ParisTech, Université Paris-Est Marne-La-Vallée, France) The Narrative Politics of the Internationalisation of Marseilles

Frands Pedersen (University of Westminster, UK) Leadership and Policy Entrepreneurship as Determinants of City- and Para-Diplomatic Strategies - A comparison of selected Danish and Swedish sub-national authorities

AUSTERITY AND TRANSPARENCY

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Lucie Sedmihradská (University of Economics, Prague, Czech Republic) Budget transparency: Political promise and reality in Prague districts

Rod Hick (Cardiff University, UK) From Celtic Tiger to Crisis: Progress, problems and prospects for the social security in Ireland

Alison Gardner & Vivien Lowndes (University of Nottingham, UK) Negotiating austerity – local traditions, forms of knowledge and emerging practice in English local government

Eunice Goes (Richmond University, UK) The Labour Party Under Ed Miliband: Still Looking for Alternatives to Austerity Politics

GOVERNING IN THE EU

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Fabrizio De Francesco (University of Strathclyde, UK) Assessing Regulators Fairly: Matching Scientific Knowledge with Impact Assessments

Xavier Carpentier Tanguy (University of Luxembourg, Luxembourg) Policy-making in Europe: cathedrals of norms and values need architects

Kate Mattocks (City University, UK) Policy learning through intergovernmental collaboration: the case of cultural governance in the European Union

Stephen Hall & Danielle Sinnett (University of the West of England, UK) Towards the Ensuring State: Integrated governance and sustainable urban development in the European Union

Stefan Roch (Central European University, Budapest) Between Learning and Isomorphism: the Impact of Twinning on EU neighbouring countries: The Case of Lebanon

DISCOURSE AND IDEAS

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Stephen Jeffares (University of Birmingham, UK) Policy Ideas and Hashtag Politics: Introducing a Theory of Policy Equivalence for Understanding the Rise and Demise of the Big Society

Jason Glynos (University of Essex, UK), Robin Klimecki (University of Bristol, UK), Hugh Willmott (Cardiff University, UK) Policy Imagination in Stasis? Contesting and Policing

Banking Reform in the UK

Patrick Hassenteufel (University of Versailles, France) & Philippe Zittoun (University of Lyon, France) Why do policy discourses succeed? Leadership and discursive change

Anas Buera (University of Exeter, UK) Discourse and Narratives of Policy Leaders in Libya "Lessons from the Authoritarian Epoch 2003-2010"

RESCALING THE STATE

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Amanda Smullen (Australian National University, Australia) National performance reporting through expert agencies as instruments for decentralized integration? The case of Australia's National Mental Health Commission

Ian Stafford (Cardiff University, UK) Is devolution delivering policy success or failure? The case of secondary education in Wales

Will Rossiter (Nottingham Trent University, UK) Rescaling economic development in the Midlands: strategy, evidence and policy

Manuel Fischer (Swiss Institute for Aquatic Science, Switzerland) & Isabelle Schläpfer (University of Berne, Switzerland) In the Shadow of Hierarchy? Policy Forums, State Intervention, and Outputs

12.30 - 1.30 Location: Palm Court
Lunch

1.30-2.30 Location: Lancaster Room
Plenary Speaker: Professor Jacob Torfing (Roskilde University, Denmark) How to lead and manage collaborative innovation

2.30-2.50 Location: Royal Foyer
Coffee

2.50-4.50 Panel session 4

THE STATE OF THE LOCAL STATE IN AUSTERITY

Panel Organiser and Chair: Steven Griggs (DeMontfort University, UK) & Helen Sullivan (University of Melbourne, Australia)

Neil Barnett (Leeds Metropolitan University, UK) The state of local councillors in the UK

Allan Cochrane (Open University, UK) Governing across space: austerity, localism and policy mobility

Crispian Fuller (Aston University, UK) The state of the local state in austerity

Steven Griggs (DeMontfort University, UK) & Helen Sullivan (University of Melbourne, Australia) Practicing the local state

WHAT DIFFERENCE DO DIRECTLY ELECTED MAYORS MAKE? SESSION 3

Panel Organiser and Chair: David Sweeting (Associate Editor, Policy & Politics, University of Bristol, UK)

Nicola Headlam & Paul Hepburn (University of Liverpool, UK) Field notes from an evaluation of the First Mayor of Liverpool

Niels Karsten (Tilburg University, Netherlands) Sources of authority for Dutch mayors: pinning down modern political authority

Nasrul Ismail (University of Bristol, UK) Embracing Social Responsibilities through Local Leadership: Comparing the Experience of the Mayors of Bristol and Liverpool

Bjorn Egner (Technical University of Darnstadt, Germany) A shift to Presidentialism? How directly elected mayors contribute to council election results in English local authorities

NEW FRONTIERS, NEW CHALLENGES FOR POLICY-MAKING

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Matia Vannoni (University College, London, UK) Thank you for banning: policy prioritisation, public support and tobacco control

Jenny L Hatchard, Gary J Fooks & Anna B Gilmore (University of Bath and UK Centre for Tobacco and Alcohol Studies, UK) The interdependence of corporate political activities: The case of standardised tobacco packaging in the UK

Juliana Moura Bueno & Joana Zylbersztajn (Department of Human Rights and Citizenship of the Municipal Government of Sao Paulo, Brazil) Human Rights and Policy Innovation In The Public Sector in Brazil: The Case of the City of São Paulo

Oliver James (University of Exeter, UK), Peter John (University College London, UK), Alice Moseley (University of Exeter, UK), Liz Richardson (University of Manchester, UK), Matt Ryan (University of Southampton, UK) & Gerry Stoker (University of Southampton, UK) Individual charitable giving and willingness to contribute to public goods

CRISES AND COLLABORATION

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Manos G. Papazoglou (University of the Peloponnese, Greece) Leadership and multi-level collaboration. Is this an effective strategy for a state under economic and political crisis?

Min Seok Bang (Dankook University, South Korea) & Yun Young Kim (University of Bristol, UK) The Difficulty of Collaboration and Policy Implications for the National Disaster Management System: the case of the Disaster of the South Korean Ferry, Sewol

Sanne Grotenbreg & Arwin van Buuren (Erasmus University Rotterdam, Netherlands) Innovation in Dutch flood risk management: from Afsluitdijk to Energy Dam. Patterns of multilayered collaboration for synchronizing innovation and asset management

Maura Adshead (University of Limerick, Ireland) Been there, done that, lost the shirt off our back: collaborative governance and crisis in Ireland

POLICY NETWORKS AND MULTI-AGENCY COLLABORATION

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Chungwoo Kim (Ministry of Strategy and Finance, Rep. of Korea) Governance in the policy implementation in Korea – A case study on the policy towards over public enterprises in 2004 to 2007

James Tiburcio (University of Brasilia, Brazil) The United Progressive Alliance leadership in the formulation of the National Food Security Bill (NFSB) of India, 2012-2013: A Public Choice analysis

Thomas Elston (University of Oxford, UK) Protecting the frontline? Opportunities and challenges in multiagency corporate service sharing

Esther Conrad (University of California Berkeley, US) Bridging the hierarchical and collaborative divide: the role of network managers in scaling up a network approach to water governance in California

Cynthia Jackson-Elmoore (Michigan State University, US) Who Gets to Inform Sub-national Legislative Policy?

Xi Bao (Urban Infrastructure and Crisis Governance Institute, China) Coupling or decoupling: What differentiates the dynamics of governance networks in China's village?

COLLABORATION: LOCAL GOVERNMENTS SESSION 2

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Valeria Guarneros-Meza (DeMontfort University, UK), James Downe & Steve Martin (Cardiff University, UK) Illusion or fact? The struggles of operational partnerships in achieving outcomes

Rachel Ashworth & James Downe (Cardiff University, UK)

Keeping partners on their toes or forever playing catch-up? The challenges of conducting collaborative scrutiny

Pobsook Chamchong (University of Birmingham, UK) Collaboration between small local governments: a comparative study of England and Thailand

Julita Łukomska & Katarzyna Szmigiel-Rawska (both of Warsaw University, Poland) Financial rate of local government collaboration

‘THE INTERNATIONALISATION OF CITIES AND REGIONS: LEADERSHIP, COOPERATION AND THE POLITICAL CHALLENGES OF POLICY NETWORKS’ (SESSION 2)

Panel Organiser and Chair: Tassilo Herrschel & Peter Newman (University of Westminster, London, UK)

Marius Guderjan & Jan Gustaf Magnus Lindh (Centre for British Studies, Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany & Centre for Research on Regional Development, Karlstad University, Sweden) Regional action in crisis? Time and space for reconfiguration

Roger Lawrence (De Montfort University/Wolverhampton City Council, Wolverhampton, UK) Local Collaboration: Explaining the Dynamics of Organisation Reshaping?

Aksel Ersoy (University of Bristol, UK) Co-producing Resilience: Beneath the City, a Co-exist?

Round Table Discussion by all speakers of this panel

CREATIVE LEADERSHIP AND INNOVATION

Panel Chair: to be confirmed

Christopher Vas (Murdoch University, Australia) ‘Flashes of Thought’ – Creative Leadership and Public Innovation in the Arab World

Songhee Yoo (Korea University) Why did deregulation occur in the Makgeolli industry? Focusing on Innovation Leadership

Andreas Hagedorn Krogh & Jacob Torfing (Roskilde University, Denmark) Leading Collaborative Innovation: New Demands for Public Leaders in a Post-NPM Era

Steve Cropper (Keele University, UK) Constructing time for leadership in collaboration

Eva Sorenson (Roskilde University, Denmark) The metagovernance of public innovation in governance networks

LEADERSHIP AND GOVERNING CRISIS AT THE SUPRA NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL LEVEL

Panel Organiser and Chair: Rory Shand (University of Plymouth, UK)

Kerry E. Howell & Rory Shand (Plymouth University, UK) Leadership in the European Union: Europeanization Crisis and Austerity

James Flint (Plymouth University, UK) Aiding Overseas Leadership and Governance: The case of Afghanistan

Nicola Langdon (Plymouth University, UK) Framing the Libyan uprising: an examination of the media-foreign policy relationship and challenges to leadership

4.50

Location: Lancaster Room
Conference close