

GP2 patients and dates 2023-24

Stream 2A ("Purple")

Session	Date	Topic	Patient
1	02.11.23	Skin	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Long-term skin inflammatory conditions, such as atopic eczema, acne or psoriasis. Common, benign skin lesions (e.g. warts, seborrheic keratosis/basal cell papilloma) or chronic urticaria Previously treated for skin cancer (malignant melanoma, squamous or basal cell carcinoma) Willing to have their pulse, respiratory rate, oxygen saturations, temperature and blood pressure checked
2	30.11.23	Pharmacology	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Anyone taking prescribed +/- over-the-counter medication +/- other "remedies", especially if due a medication review and/or take medication that requires monitoring.* Anyone willing to have students examine their respiratory system and their ears/throat * They do not necessarily need to have multiple medications, or to have had problems from previous tablets (including adherence), etc
3	25.01.24	Chest pain	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> History of chest pain e.g. stable angina or previous acute coronary syndrome Previous symptomatic heart rhythm abnormality, pericarditis or pleurisy Any patient with relevant history willing to undergo cardiovascular examination. It is helpful (although not essential) that they have signs, such as abnormality of heart rhythm (e.g. AF), valve disease (aortic stenosis), heart failure or other signs of cardiac disease.
4	22.02.24	Abdomen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Chronic or recurrent conditions causing abdominal pain, jaundice or change in bowel habit. Previous episode of acute abdominal pain e.g. previous gallstones/pancreatitis/appendicitis etc.
5	21.03.24	Joint pain	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Musculoskeletal problem(s) that affect their mobility or activities of daily living, who are willing to speak to and be examined by medical students, e.g. osteoarthritis of one or more joints; mechanical back pain; and/or rheumatoid arthritis.
6	09.05.24	Headache	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Current chronic/recurrent headaches e.g. migraine Previous acute headache e.g. subarachnoid haemorrhage, temporal arteritis

Stream 2B ("Green")

	Date	Topic	Patient
1	16.11.23	Body defence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Previous serious or recurrent infection(s) • An allergic (including anaphylactic) reaction • Willing to have their pulse, respiratory rate oxygen saturations, temperature and blood pressure checked; and their ears/throat examined
2	14.12.23	Anaemia, blood and clotting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Diagnosed/treated for anaemia • Previous DVT or PE and/or is on an anticoagulant
3	08.02.24	Breathlessness	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chronic or recurrent conditions causing breathlessness such as asthma or COPD (to tie in with case-based learning); otherwise any patient with history of chronic breathlessness secondary to bronchiectasis, cystic fibrosis, fibrosing alveolitis, lung cancer. • Previous episode of breathlessness e.g. pneumonia, pulmonary embolism, pneumothorax.
4	See below*
5	25.04.24	Urinary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chronic renal failure or who has a past history of acute renal failure or a patient with renal transplant or on dialysis • Recurrent or chronic urinary symptoms e.g. prostate cancer or prostatic hypertrophy or has an indwelling catheter. • Type 1 or type 2 diabetes • Anyone suitable for abdominal examination or skills practice
6	23.05.24	Collapse	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • History of syncope or transient loss of consciousness from any cause • History of epilepsy • Previous TIA or stroke

* Students are not with you this fortnight, as they visit a secondary care psychiatry setting.