Conference venue:

SS Great Britain, Great Eastern Hall
Great Western Dockyard,
Gas Ferry Road,
Bristol,
BS1 6TY

Some information on getting to the SS Great Britain can be found here: http://www.ssgreatbritain.org/your-visit/how-find-us
Coming by train:
The main train station in Bristol, Bristol Temple Meads, is within 30 mins walk of the SS Great Britain, mostly along the quiet waterfront.

Coming by Road:
There are signs for SS Great Britain on main roads. Sat Nav postcode: BS1 6TY

Parking: There is a car park with 150 spaces adjacent to SS Great Britain run by the City Council and it is possible to get a special day parking pass from SS GB for conference delegates for £2.50 per day.

Other parking options can be found on this map: http://travelwest.info/drive/find-parking/bristol-car-parking-map including the nearby 600 space Whapping Wharf car park.
Coming from the airport

The Bristol Flyer bus runs approximately every 10 minutes to the city centre and costs £11 return. The bus stop outside the airport is immediately outside the terminal.

The nearest bus stop to the SS Great Britain is the Tt stop, which takes 20 minutes from the airport and is circled in red on the map below. From here you walk along the waterfront as for those coming from Bristol Temple Meads Station shown above.

Bristol Flyer route within Bristol City Centre:
Directions to Social events

Wednesday 30th September: Detroit soup style event, from 6.30pm

The ‘Detroit Soup’ Style event is being held at ‘The Station Kitchen’ in the main shopping area of Bristol City Centre. A simple, relaxed meal with a chance to vote on how the profits are spent! http://detroitsoup.com/

The Station Kitchen
Silver Street
Bristol
BS1 2AG

http://www.thestationbristol.org.uk/about/the-kitchen.html
Thursday 1st October: Drinks reception, 7.30pm

The drinks reception will be held ‘Bordeaux Quay’ on the Waterfront in Bristol, a restaurant with a strong sustainability ethic including using mostly free-range or organic meat.

http://www.bordeaux-quay.co.uk/

Friday 2nd October: Gala diner, 7.30pm for 8pm

The Gala dinner will be held at the M-Shed, a waterfront museum with an open air terrace on the top floor giving wonderful evening views over the water to the city.

http://www.bristolmuseums.org.uk/m-shed/