

10th & 11th July 2014

School of Veterinary Sciences, University of Bristol, Langford,
Bristol, UK

The Veterinary Education Symposium is a two day event open to a range of delegates, including veterinary educationalists, veterinary students, practitioners and researchers. It aims to provide an open and friendly atmosphere in which to share ideas, innovations and best practice in veterinary education.

The 2 days will include keynote presentations, short poster presentations and interactive workshops. Once again there will be pre-conference workshops (9th July).

Please visit the website for more information:

<http://www.bris.ac.uk/vetscience/events/veted2014/index.html>