Application process

Online application form

Applicants should complete the online application form, uploading all required documents directly. Further information is available on our guidance for online applications page

Applications will not be considered until all required documents have been uploaded. If you have already submitted an application, you can upload additional documents into the 'Post-submission uploads' section of the application form. Paper documents received by post, or electronic documents received by email, are only considered in exceptional circumstances.

Required and optional documents

✓	Two academic references (minimum):	References should be submitted electronically by the referee, using the online reference form. Alternatively, scanned copies of the original reference document(s) can be uploaded by the applicant. If you graduated more than five years ago, or if professional experience is relevant to the application, professional references will be accepted in lieu of one academic reference. At least one referee should be familiar with the applicant's academic work. References supplied with a personal contact email address will be accepted in exceptional circumstances, which must be explained within the reference. All references must be written, signed and dated on official letter headed paper from the referee's organisation. They must include the referee's full contact details, i.e. postal address, telephone number and organisation email address and must be dated within the last two years. A reference template is available to show the required format.
✓	Degree certificate(s)	From first and subsequent degrees. We require colour scans of original documents and certified translations of documents issued in any language other than English.
✓	Academic transcripts	From first and subsequent degrees. We require colour scans of original documents and certified translations of documents issued in any language other than English. Transcripts must list all subjects taken and grades achieved to date, with the grade scale clearly displayed in the transcript. Applicants must clearly state their current average grade in the online application form.
✓	Personal statement:	Personal statements should highlight the motivation for applying for the course, and any relevant experience and/or skills.
✓	English language certificates/other evidence	All applicants are required to have reached the required profile level of English language as specified by the University's English Language Requirements Policy
✓	Curriculum Vitae (CV)	CVs might include details of other relevant work experience and qualifications to support an application.
✓	Research Statement:	The primary requirement for the research statement is to define and situate your research within an academic/disciplinary context. You should remember that people in the academic community are the primary audience/readership for postgraduate research. This means that you will need to identify:

		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.The research questions or problems that you intend to address; 2.The research context for your project/programme of work; 3.The methods you think you will use to pursue the key questions.
✓	Programme specific research statement requirements	Guidance on writing a research statement can be found on the Law School website.
Optional Documents Curriculum Vitae (CV): A CV is not required but can help an application. CVs might include details of other relevant qualifications to support an application. Please do not include any school (pre university) certificates, unless otherwise specified above. Research Training Statement: A Research Training Statement is not required, but applicants are welcome to provide details of any training requirements to support their postgraduate studies.

Selection process

Assessment of applications

All applicants are considered in line with the University's Admissions Principles and Procedures Policy and Equality, Diversity and Inclusion policy. Once a complete application has been submitted with all required supporting documents, it is assessed by the research director in the first instance and, if considered of interest, by two academics working in the applicant's proposed subject area. The following criteria are used:

- performance in undergraduate and subsequent degrees (where applicable)
- English language ability (where applicable)
- references
- personal statement
- Quality of Research proposal
- Availability of supervisors for research area

Interviews

Interviews form part of the selection process.

The purpose of the interview is to assess whether the applicant has the necessary skills and capabilities to pursue the chosen postgraduate programme, and whether the programme is appropriate to the applicant's interests and aspirations. Applicants should be prepared to talk about their research statement and methodology during the interview

All interviewees will normally be interviewed by telephone or Skype.

Decisions

Applicants will be notified by email when a decision has been made and decision letters will be available to view and print by logging into the application. If there is a deadline by which applicants must accept an offer of admission or pay a deposit, this will be stated in the offer letter.

Offers

Offers will typically be made in line with the academic requirements set out above. Offers made may be conditional or unconditional. An unconditional offer will be made to applicants who have already met the conditions and provided evidence that conditions have been met. Where academic or language requirements have not yet been fulfilled, applicants will receive a conditional offer outlining the requirements that must be met.

If an applicant is not selected to receive an offer for the course to which they have originally applied, we may offer the opportunity to be considered for an alternative programme in a related subject area. In such cases applicants will receive an email notification providing any alternative course options and asking whether they wish to be considered for these. It may be necessary for applicants to submit additional documentation in order for the application to be fully considered for an alternative programme. Details of the documentation required can be found in the admissions statement for the relevant programme.

Results deadline

Applicants who receive a conditional offer will be required to submit all final results to meet their offer conditions by 1 August 2020. Offer holders who will be unable to provide their final results by this date should email law-pg-admissions@bristol.ac.uk to notify the admissions team as soon as possible.

Deferrals

Deferred entry is available for this programme, subject to agreement by the relevant Admissions Team. Please contact law-pg-admissions@bristol.ac.uk to make a formal request.
