Selection process

Assessment of applications

All applicants are considered in line with the University's Admissions Principles and Procedures Policy Once a complete application has been submitted to the AEP with all required supporting documents, it is considered by at least two members of staff using the following criteria:

- Meets the requirements of the Educational Psychology Funded Training (EPFT) scheme
- English language ability (where applicable)
- References
- Quality of personal statement

Please refer to the AEP (national admissions clearing house) website for further details www.aep.org.uk/training/. It is not possible to apply on a self-funded basis and/or direct to the University for this programme.

Shortlisted candidates only will be invited to interview.

Interviews

Interviews will form part of the selection process for shortlisted candidates.

The purpose of the interview is to assess whether the applicant has the necessary skills and capabilities to pursue the chosen postgraduate programme, and whether the programme is appropriate to the applicant's interests and aspirations.

The interview panel will include members of the programme team and an educational psychologist colleague from a neighbouring educational psychology service.

Decisions

Decisions will be made in line with the nationally agreed timescales via the AEP. Please refer to the AEP (national admissions clearing house) website for further details www.aep.org.uk/training/
