 - Keeping your garden in an untidy state so that it is an eyesore or attracts vermin
- (ii) To be responsible for the behaviour of every person (including children) visiting the Premises. You are responsible for them in the Premises, on surrounding land, in communal areas (stairs, lifts, landings, entrance halls, communal gardens, parking areas, for example) and in the wider locality around the Premises
- (7) Harassment
That neither you or your visitors to the Room or Premises, will commit or threaten any form of harassment (including on the grounds of race, colour, religion, disability, age, sex, or sexual orientation) which may interfere with the peace and comfort of, or cause offence to, other people in the locality of the Premises or to any tenant, agent, employee or contractor of the Association or any company associated with the A2Dominion Group.
- (8) Assaults & Abuse towards us and our Staff
- (i) That neither you nor your visitors will hinder, obstruct, harass, intimidate, threaten, abuse, stalk or assault any employee, agent or contractor of the Association or any associated company of the A2Dominion Group. This includes but is not limited to being abusive, harassing or bullying via social media or making vexatious complaints.
 - (ii) The neither you or your visitors will make any public defamatory or deliberately misleading comments about the Association or any associated company of the A2Dominion Group, including via social media.
- (9) Noise
That neither you nor your visitors will make any noise which can be heard outside the Room or Premises and which may cause a nuisance to other people in the locality. In particular any form of noise should be kept to a minimum between the hours of 11pm and 7am and at a reasonable level at all other times
- (10) Health & Safety
Not to act in a manner which causes a health or safety risk to others in and around the Premises. These examples of behaviour include the following but are not limited to these:-
- Leaving food and other debris lying around in communal areas
 - Leaving items in communal hallway that block fire exit
- (11) Not to keep any animals in the Room or on the Premises.
- (12) To keep the interior of the Room and Premises in good and clean condition.

- (18) Communal Areas
 - (i) Not to store a bicycle vehicle, pram, pushchair or other item in communal areas and on balconies.
 - (ii) Not to allow motor cycles or similar machines to be stored or placed in any internal shed or store.
 - (iii) Not to obstruct corridors, staircases, balconies, lifts, fire doors or firefighting equipment
 - (iv) Not to hang laundry for drying so that it is visible from the exterior of the Premises except in the drying area provided for this purpose
 - (v) Not to throw any article from windows, landings, balconies or corridors
 - (vi) Not to install any satellite dish onto the outside of the building without the Association's written consent and to comply with any Local Authority planning policies or requirements
 - (vii) To keep clean access balconies or corridors outside the Premises
 - (viii) To share the cleaning of common areas with other residents in the building unless the cleaning is carried out by the Association or a contractor
 - (ix) To place household refuse in communal bins provided but to ensure that any large items of refuse e.g. furniture, electrical goods are not placed in the bin area. You are responsible for arranging collection of these items from the Premises at your own expense or by taking them to the local refuse site.
- (19) To give the Association vacant possession and return the keys to the Room and Premises at the end of the Tenancy, and to remove all furniture, personal possessions and rubbish belonging to the Tenant and leave the Premises and the Association's fixtures and fittings in good lettable condition and repair. You will be charged in default if the Premises, fixtures and fittings are not left in good lettable condition and repair.
- (20) Any items left in the Room and at the Premises after the termination of the tenancy will be deemed abandoned and disposed of by the Association as they see fit without liability to the Tenant for the goods.

The Association will be entitled to charge the Tenant for any reasonable costs it incurs in controlling, removing, storing or disposing of such goods and the Association will be entitled to use the proceeds of disposal (if any) of the goods towards settling any arrears of Rent and other monies that are owed to the Association.
- (21) Internal Condition & care of the room and premises
 - (i) To keep the interior of the room and Premises in as good and clean condition as it was when let to you. At the end of the tenancy, the room and Premises must be returned in as good as state of repair and decoration as it was when let to you (fair wear and tear excepted)
 - (ii) To take care to protect the room and Premises from condensation, including wiping down condensation, and adequately heat and ventilate your room.
 - (iii) Not to allow the interior or any part of the room or Premises to get into any state or condition that would present a health or safety risk to you, other tenants or visitors to the room or Premises. Example of which include but are not limited to:

- Hoarding or storing of rubbish or other items such that it restricts access to any part of the room and Premises
- Any activity or neglect that results in vermin or pests being present in the room or Premises (this included bedbugs, rats, mice, cockroaches).

If you fail to comply with this clause the Association may (but is not required to) take steps to remedy the condition of the room/remises in your default and will be entitled to recharge you for all costs and charges it incurs in doing so. It may also, or instead apply to recover possess of the room/premises.

- (22) Not to keep/light in the Room or Premises candles, incense sticks or burners. Not to set light open fires within or on/around the Premises.
- (23) Drugs, Offences, Terrorism, Gang Membership
- (i) That neither you nor your visitors will cultivate, use, sell or supply illegal drugs in the Premises or in the locality of the Premises
 - (ii) That neither you nor your visitors will commit or take part in or collude in a criminal offence in the Premises or in the locality of the Premises
 - (i) That neither you nor your visitors will keep a firearm, or other weapon weather legal or illegal in the Premises or the communal areas.
 - (ii) That neither you nor your visitors will take part in or encourage or promote any terrorist activity.
 - (iii) That neither you nor your visitors will become a member of a gang or allow a member of a gang to visit the accommodation.

By 'gang' we mean the definition used in Section 34 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009 (as amended) or such subsequent definition as may replace it.

- (24) It is a term of this Tenancy that you and/or anyone acting for you have not given false information either to the Association or to the Local Authority or to the statutory agency or the organisation which nominated you to the Association, in order to get this tenancy. If you or anyone acting for you has given false information, it will be a breach of this tenancy entitling us to apply to recover possession for the Premises.
- (25) To allow the Association's or contractors acting on behalf of the Association access at all reasonable hours of the day to inspect the condition of the room/premises or any installation or to carry out repairs or other works to the room/premises.
- (26) To be responsible for arranging the delivery and receipt of all parcels addressed to you.

The Association will not be held liable for any items left unattended on the premises. Any parcel(s) not collected by the Tenant within (1) month will be deemed abandoned and the Association shall be entitled to dispose of the parcel(s) as they see fit without liability to the Tenant. If the tenant fails to collect within (1) month, the Association will be entitled to charge you for any reasonable costs it incurs controlling, storing or disposing of such parcel (s). The Association is not liable for any loss of or damage to the said parcel(s) (other than caused directly by the Association's breach of the Tenancy or the Association's deliberate or negligent act or omission) or for any consequential loss even if that loss or damage is due to the fault of the Association. Where the Association is liable, their liability does not exceed the true value of the parcel(s).

The Tenant's Rights

4. The Tenant has the following rights:

- (1) The Tenant has the right to occupy the Room and Premises peacefully and without interruption by the Association for the duration of this Tenancy, (except for the obligation contained in this Agreement to give access to the Association's employees or contractors) so long as the Tenant complies with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and has proper respect for the rights of other tenants and neighbours.
- (2) Termination of the Tenancy
 - (i) The Tenancy will expire at the end of the fixed term at which time the Tenant must vacate the Premises. As the Tenancy is for a fixed term and is not assured as it is excluded from the provisions of the Housing Act 1988 pursuant to paragraph 8 of Schedule 1 of that Act, the Association is not required to serve any form of Notice to Quit before commencing legal proceedings after the fixed term has expired. It also means that the Association can recover possession upon termination of the tenancy, (whether at expiry of the fixed term or pursuant to clause 4(2) (ii) below) but if the Tenant fails to vacate the Association must apply for a Court Order.
 - (ii) Re-entry by the landlord (forfeiture)

If at any time:

 - the rent or other charges payable remain unpaid, wholly or in part, for 14 days after becoming due, whether formally demanded or not, or
 - you do not use, or cease to use the Room and Premises as your only or principal home, or any of the other obligations in this Tenancy are not complied with then the Association may forfeit (i.e. bring to an end) the Tenancy and recover possession of the Premises. Any other rights and remedies the Association may have will remain in force.

(NOTE: this clause does not affect any rights the tenant has under the Protection From Eviction Act 1977 - the Association cannot enter the Premises or evict you without a court having first made an order for possession)

5. By way of further rights, the Association agrees:

- (1) The Association will consult the Tenant before making changes in matters of housing management or maintenance, which are likely to have a substantial effect on the Tenant.
- (2) The Tenant has a right to information from the Association about the terms of the Tenancy, and about the Association's repairing obligations and its policies and procedures on tenant consultation and housing management.
- (3) The Tenant has the right to use the Association's procedure for dealing with complaints raised by the Tenant on any matter arising from this tenancy. The Association shall provide details of the scheme at the beginning or during the Tenancy and inform the Tenant of any changes. If still dissatisfied after the complaints procedure has been exhausted the Tenant shall have the right to refer the matter to the Housing Association Tenant's Ombudsman Service, whose address and contact details shall be passed to the Tenant by the Association when requested.

Cancellation Policy

6. Tenancy cancellation:

- (1) A Tenant has the right to cancel the agreement within 7 days of accepting it either in writing or by email. The association will refund any reservation fee or advance rent payment in full.
- (2) A Tenant has the right to request to cancel the agreement after 7 days of accepting it in writing or by email.
 - i) If the Tenant requests to cancel prior to the Tenancy commencement date the Association will retain the reservation fee in full and will return any advance rent payment.
 - ii) If the Tenant requests to cancel after the Tenancy commencement date the Tenant will remain liable unless a suitable replacement Tenant is found. If a replacement Tenant is found, a new Tenancy agreement signed, and reservation fee and rent paid the original Tenancy will be cancelled. The withdrawing Tenant will be liable for any rent outstanding and the Associations reasonable reletting costs up to a maximum of £100.
- (3) If the Association cancels an agreement prior to commencement for reasons outside of the Tenants control the tenant deposit and any advance rental payment will be returned in full.

The Tenant is strongly advised to read and ensure that he or she understands the terms and conditions contained within this agreement before signing.
