

Centre For Macroeconomics
3rd Bristol Macroeconomics Workshop (BMW)
University of Bristol

May 19-20, 2022

CALL FOR PAPERS

The 3rd BMW on “The Macroeconomic Effects of Micro Heterogeneity” organized by the University of Bristol School of Economics in collaboration with the Centre For Macroeconomics will take place in person on May 19-20 in Bristol (United Kingdom).

Confirmed keynote lectures:

- Mariacristina De Nardi (University of Minnesota, Minneapolis Fed, CEPR, NBER)
- (TBC) Nezih Guner (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, BSE, CEMFI)
- Hugo Hopenhayn (UCLA)

We welcome both theoretical and empirical submissions dealing with the macroeconomic consequences of micro heterogeneity. Topics could include ex post and/or ex ante differences across individuals, firms, locations or markets and their effect on growth, economic fluctuations, inequality, misallocation, trade patterns or policy design. Research papers not closely linked to these topics may be considered as well.

Submission guidelines:

- Complete manuscripts (or extended abstracts) must be submitted here.
- Submission deadline: 21 March 2022.
- Accepted author(s) will be notified by 11 April 2022 – Accommodation and travel expenses will be covered for speakers.

Contact: bristol-macro-workshop2022@bristol.ac.uk

Organizing Committee
Árpád Ábrahám (University of Bristol)
Vasco M. Carvalho (University of Cambridge)
Sergio Feijoo Moreira (University of Bristol)