Honouring a memory

Celebrating your impact

You are part of an inspirational community of philanthropists who are enabling ground-breaking research, solving global challenges and enriching lives.

Throughout its history, the University of Bristol has been shaped by the extraordinary generosity of its supporters. Today and in recent years, your remarkable gifts continue this legacy and are a critical part of the University's success.

Across the following pages, we proudly recognise the University's most generous supporters. Together, you have a far-reaching impact on talented students and researchers, the future of our University, and our world.

Bristol Pioneers

For donors who support Bristol with an annual gift of £1,000 to £24,999

Together our Bristol Pioneers are accelerating world-changing research and expanding opportunities for talented students, regardless of their background, to experience a Bristol higher education.

There are two moments that are important. There's the moment when you know you can find the answers and that's the period you are sleepless. When you've got it and know what it is, then you can rest easy.

Professor Dorothy Hodgkin

The Sir Winston Churchill Philanthropic Circle

For donors who have committed over £5 million to the University

Sir Winston Churchill, our longest serving Chancellor (1929-1965), Nobel Laureate (Literature 1953) and Prime Minister, lends his name to our most prestigious Giving Circle. He understood our ambition to make a better life for the world in which we live. We are pleased to recognise those whose landmark gifts will be crucial in realising our bold ambition for the future.
