

ALUMNI VOLUNTEER GUIDE

WHY SHOULD YOU VOLUNTEER?

Volunteering is more than giving back to the University – it's an opportunity to grow, connect and inspire.

Through volunteering you can:

- Reconnect with Bristol and fellow alumni
- Give back to future generations of students
- Expand your network and meet inspiring people
- Challenge and deepen your skills
- Boost yours and others' confidence

How you can get involved

'I am so grateful that each year, around 2000 Bristol alumni like you choose to volunteer their time to support the University of Bristol community.

I hope you find something in this leaflet to inspire you. We also offer one-off volunteering roles throughout the year, so do visit our website to find out more: bristol.ac.uk/alumni/get-involved

Whether you have five minutes or five hours to give, there is something for everyone.

Thank you so much for your interest in volunteering!

– Laura Anders,
Head of Alumni Engagement

DON'T JUST TAKE IT FROM US...

I feel a lifelong connection to the University of Bristol, and it's wonderful to come back to volunteer and still feel part of it all.'

– Sam Joiner (BA 2011)

If you're considering volunteering, do it. You'll get so much more out of it than you think, and there's no way to put a price on it.'
