

Public Sector and Government

Maddie Jennings

Public and Political Affairs Manager, British Association of Social Workers

Maddie is the Public and Political Affairs Manager at the British Association of Social Workers. She monitors and campaigns to change legislation that effects social workers and service users, and trains and supports members to run their own campaigns. Maddie came to this role after years of working for Labour MPs in Parliament as a researcher and speechwriter.

Rhiannon Griffiths

Commissioning Manager, Bristol City Council

Rachel Clarke

Communications and Press Officer, Knowle West Media Centre

Rachel studied English BA at Bristol, graduating in 2008. She currently works as the Communications and Press Officer at Knowle West Media Centre.