FRONTLINE

CHANGING LIVES

"Frontline is a social work charity working to ensure that all children in England have a safe and stable home, and that their life chances are not limited by their social or family circumstance.

One of the ways we make this happen is by recruiting and teaching a new, diverse generation of social workers specialising in child protection to join our Frontline programme. By completing the PLUS Award, students can gain the skills and understanding to help them become great social workers and bring about social change for children and families." Frontline, Charity

"CIL values proactive, forward-thinking and innovative people. Bristol PLUS award students epitomise these characteristics and we are therefore more than willing to engage with participants and help progress their careers." CIL Management Consultants, Management and Business Consultancy

"With the digital landscape set to become an even bigger part of Britain's economy over the next few years, technology organisations such as BJSS have a role to play in ensuring that as many young people as possible are equipped to pursue careers in this space. Initiatives like the Bristol PLUS Awards support this by creating valuable skills and experience. We're thrilled to be part of it." BJSS, IT and Business Consultancy

"The Bristol PLUS Award allows student to gain an array of skills that really stand out to employers. We think these are vital as they can be translated and applied to create leaders for social change with Unlocked." Unlocked, Charity
