Ridhwaan Korimbocus

University of Bristol | ridhwaan.korimbocus@bristol.ac.uk | Website

EDUCATION

University of Bristol, PhD Economics (Expected March 2027) 2022 - 2027
University of Bristol, MRes Economics 2021 - 2022
University of Bristol, MSc Economics 2019 - 2020
University of Bristol, BSc Economics and Accounting 2016 - 2019

RESEARCH FIELDS

Macroeconomics, Environmental Macroeconomics, Public Economics

RESEARCH

Job Market Paper

"Carbon Taxes and Clean Technology Transition in an International Environment".

Working Papers

"Optimal Wealth Tax with Evasion and Financial Frictions". August 2026. Paper.

REFERENCES

Prof. Árpád Ábrahám
University of Bristol, Dept. of Economics
arpad.abraham@bristol.ac.uk

Prof. Hakki Yazici
University of Bristol, Dept. of Economics
hakki.yazici@bristol.ac.uk

Prof. Tai-Wei Hu
University of Bristol, Dept. of Economics
taiwei.hu@bristol.ac.uk

Prof. Edmund Cannon (Teaching Reference)
University of Bristol, Dept. of Economics
edmund.cannon@bristol.ac.uk

PRESENTATIONS

2026: University of Exeter, University of Bristol, Vigo Dynamic Macro Workshop, International Institute of Public Finance Congress (Lisbon)

2025: University of Bristol, RES Easter School, University of Exeter, Tools for Macroeconomists Workshop, SouthWest Macro PhD Workshop

2024: University of Bristol, Bath-Bristol Graduate Student Workshop

2023: University of Bristol, University of Bath

TEACHING

UNIVERSITY OF BRISTOL

2026: Mathematics for Economics, Public Economics

2025: Applied Quantitative Research Methods, Mathematics for Economics

2024: Applied Quantitative Research Methods, Econometrics 1 (Computer Labs), Mathematics for Economics

2023: Applied Quantitative Research Methods, Intermediate Macroeconomics

SCHOLARSHIPS

University of Bristol MRes + PhD Scholarship 2021 - 2026
University of Bristol International Office Scholarship 2016 - 2019

MISCELLANEOUS

Programming: MATLAB, Stata
Languages: English, French, Arabic (Kuwait), Mauritian Creole

Last Updated: 1 September 2026