

Advancing Teaching Excellence in Economics: Student Learning, Assessment, and Pedagogic Practice

Monday 15 June 2026 10:00-17:30

Room: Life Sciences G13/14

Welcome 10:00 Melisa
Session 1 - 10:05-11:35	Building Scholarship of Learning and Teaching Capacity
Professor Sheena Warman (Bristol Vet School)	Enhancing Pedagogic Research Culture across the University
Steve	Publishing in Economics Education
Coffee Break (11:35-11:50)
Session 2 - 11:50-13:00	Rethinking Student Learning and the Economics Curriculum
Gervas	Advantages and Disadvantages of teaching Core
Satadru	Exploring student's assessment and learning experience and developing ideas to enhance assessment support
Lunch (13:00-13:50)
Session 3 - 13:50-15:20	Embedding AI in Teaching Practice: Workshop and Discussion
Rabeya	Workshop: Embedding AI Literacy in Applied Econometrics
Discussion (chaired by Mike)	What do students expect from feedback and assessment, and what role should AI play?
Coffee Break (15:20 – 15:40)
Session 4 - 15:40-17:10	AI, Student Perspectives, and Teaching Practice
Danielle	Using AI in historical assessments in economics
Ahmed	Learning Outcomes and AI Literacy
Anastasia and Anthi	Insights from SAGE: Leaders' and Students' Perspectives
Closing Remarks (17:15-17:30)
Dinner 18:00	Brewhouse Cotham Hill (self-funded)