A guide to completing your Grundy Educational Trust application

1. Read the Grundy Educational Trust Regulations and Data Privacy Policy.

2. Complete online form
   The form can only be completed in one sitting.
   You will need to have to hand the following information:
   • Your personal details, including the name and ages of any dependants (as applicable)
   • Information on your academic history, including details on:
     o degree / formal qualification attained and grades achieved,
     o schools attended after the age of 14,
     o lower level qualifications achieved (i.e. A-Levels, GCSEs)
   • Information on your employment history
   • Details of the course you will be undertaking for which you are making an application for funding
   • Information on other grants you may have applied for
   • Information on your estimated income and expenditure for the forthcoming academic year
   • Referee details
   • A brief personal statement on why you should be considered for an award

3. Obtain and submit a supporting statement Obtaining a statement can be time-consuming. Please ensure that you allow enough time to meet the application deadline.
   Please note that your statement will be forwarded to the Grundy Educational Trust if your application is shortlisted.
   • Contact either the University of Bristol programme director or your future supervisor and ask them to provide you with a brief statement in support of your award application.

If you are applying for funding at Masters level and are not in contact with a specific supervisor or programme director, you may wish to email the School’s postgraduate office (for current students rather than Postgraduate Admissions) and ask for their support in identifying a suitable programme director or supervisor.

If you are still unable to obtain a statement from the University of Bristol, please obtain a supporting statement from the supervisor or programme director of your current or most recent degree programme.

• Email this statement as an attachment to sfo-admin@bristol.ac.uk.
