1. Updates to this policy

- 1.1. This policy has been updated to align to the new University of Bristol policy template.

2. Introduction

- 2.1. This document sets out the University's policy relating to travel, subsistence and expenses. It explains what the University will pay for as its operating costs. The Policy aims to provide clear guidance to enable University activity whilst complying with statutory regulations and the University's charitable objectives to promote world-leading research and teaching.
- 2.2. Expenses may only be incurred where required for University activity and should aim to keep the overall cost to the University to a minimum, given that more than half of the University's income comes from public funding sources.
- 2.3. The Policy seeks to support the University's broader environmental objectives by encouraging more sustainable behaviours and discouraging carbon-intensive methods of working and travelling.
- 2.4. To provide a key step in helping the University meet its duty of care in respect of the health and safety of its staff and students.

3. Scope

- 3.1. This policy applies to all University expenditure and all funding sources.
- 3.2. This policy refers to all categories of expenditure, regardless of the method of payment. The general principles therefore relate to:
 - a. Expense claims
 - b. Corporate credit cards
 - c. Cash passports
 - d. Requisitions / purchase orders
 - e. Petty cash purchases
 - f. Any other payment methods

- 3.3. This policy applies to the following groups:
- a. All staff
 - b. All students, and
 - c. Any persons undertaking University activity. See 'FAQ 2: University activity' for further clarification
- 3.4. This policy applies to the following categories of expenditure and activity:
- a. Business travel of all modes, including bicycle, rail, car, aeroplane etc.
 - b. Accommodation while traveling on University business (e.g. hotels)
 - c. Hospitality
 - d. Reclaim of expenses incurred on University business.

4. Definitions

- 4.1. Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC): The UK government department responsible for tax collection.
- 4.2. Nil-gain, nil-loss basis: A financial principle where transactions are conducted without profit or loss.
- 4.3. Sanctioned Countries: Countries subject to official penalties or restrictions imposed by one or more countries.
- 4.4. Subsistence: Refers to the provision of food and drink, and sometimes accommodation, necessary for someone to live or stay somewhere.
- 4.5. Academic fares: Specially negotiated flexible airfares for academic travel, often offering better terms for changes and cancellations.
- 4.6. Charity fares: Discounted travel rates available to charitable or non-profit organisations, often with greater flexibility and lower costs.
- 4.7. Duty of care: The University's legal and ethical responsibility to ensure the health, safety and wellbeing of its staff and students during work-related activities.
- 4.8. MyERP: The University's electronic resource planning system used for ordering goods, submitting expense claims, and managing financial processes.

- 4.9. Reconciliation: The process of reviewing and confirming transactions, such as matching receipts with credit card purchases, for accounting purposes.

5. Responsibilities

- 5.1. Finance Services: Are responsible for processing all expense claims promptly. Ensuring that expenditure is in line with any funder's terms and conditions. Finance Services will refer non-compliant or unreasonable expenditure to the relevant Head of School or Divisional Head for a final decision.
- 5.2. Budget Holder: Is responsible for ensuring that the expense claim is appropriate to the University's needs before authorising the claim. Ensuring that expenditure is allowable within the budget being charged.
- 5.3. Claimant: Must submit claims at the earliest opportunity and no later than eight weeks after the expense has been incurred. Receipts must be provided for all items with specific instructions for lost or non-English receipts. Written approval from the School Manager or Divisional Head must be included for items over £10 without receipts.
- 5.4. School Manager/Divisional Head: Must provide written approval for exceptions to the policy due to a demonstrable and clear business need.
- 5.5. Director of Procurement: Responsible for the contract management of the Travel Management Company (TMC), including the removal or suspension of certain services or types from the TMC and communicating these changes to Schools and Divisions.

6. Compliance

- 6.1. The claims that include costs that are not eligible under this policy won't be reimbursed, other than under the circumstances described in section 6.3 and section 6.5.
- 6.2. If payments made that are not eligible under this policy are made on Corporate Credit Cards, the card may be withdrawn and the beneficiary will be required to reimburse the University. For information please see the Corporate Credit Card Policy.

- 6.3. If expenditure is outside of this policy, or considered unreasonable, Finance Services staff will refer to the relevant Head of School or Divisional Head, or their nominated delegate, for a final decision. Decisions to fund expenses outside of the policy must be accompanied by a written explanation of the business need for HMRC audit purposes. A tax charge may arise that will need to be paid by either the University or the individual, dependent on the circumstances.
- 6.4. Finance Services and the Budget Holder have a responsibility to ensure the expenditure is in line with any funder's terms and conditions. Finance Services will not authorise expenditure that is going to be charged against a specific grant or funding source, if it does not comply with the terms of that funding. Please note that where this policy has greater restrictions than the Funder's policy, this policy takes precedence.
- 6.5. If you are unsure whether your expenditure will comply with the policy please contact your Faculty Finance Team and/or School Manager or Divisional Head, or their nominated delegate, to discuss it before making any bookings or commitments.
- 6.6. Where exceptions to the policy are made due to a demonstrable and clear business need, the Faculty Finance Team or School Manager/Divisional Head, or their nominated delegate, should provide this in writing. The Claimant should attach this to their Expense Claim or Corporate Credit Card reconciliation.
- 6.7. Abuse of this policy may be dealt with using the University's conduct procedure (Ordinance 10) and/or the University's Fraud Policy.

7. General principles

Travel costs

- 7.1. All travel costs and other expenses should be reasonably incurred for appropriate University activity on a nil-gain, nil-loss basis.

Receipts

- 7.2. Receipts should be provided for all items of expenditure, except for purchases via Purchase Order. The University recognises that on occasions receipts may be lost or not provided by the vendor. Claims and reconciliations can still be submitted in this instance:

- a. For items over £10, a written justification should be provided and approval from the School Manager/Divisional Head, or their nominated delegate, and should be attached to the claim/reconciliation.
- b. For items under £10, an explanation does not need to be given but items without receipts must be identified on the claim/reconciliation. However, please be aware that some funders require receipts for all items of expenditure regardless of value; in these circumstances receipts must be submitted for all items.

- 7.3. Scanned copies of original receipts are required; original paper receipts will not be accepted. The receipts should include details of the item/s bought and VAT breakdown, and should show proof of payment. For receipts that are illegible, or not written in English, please provide a clear description of the expenditure on the back of the receipt before scanning. Credit card holder receipts and copies of credit card or bank statements should be submitted if other receipts are not available – in these cases Budget Holders should be informed by the Claimant prior to submission.
- 7.4. For expense claims, once receipts have been scanned and attached to the claim, the original copies only need to be retained by the claimant until reimbursement has been received. For corporate credit card transactions, once the receipts have been scanned and attached through the reconciliation (coding) task, receipts only need to be retained until the item is fully approved.
- 7.5. Only costs relating to University activities will be reimbursed.

Allowable expenditure

- 7.6. Please ensure that expenditure can be accommodated and is allowable within the budget being charged. If you are unsure, your Assistant Accountant will be able to provide guidance. Expenditure should be agreed with the Budget Holder before incurring any costs.

The impact of business travel

- 7.7. Travel accounts for a significant and growing share of the University's total carbon footprint. To reduce the impact of business travel please:
- a. join meetings remotely (e.g. by video conference)
 - b. take public transport instead of going by car or taxi
 - c. travel by rail instead of air
 - d. fly Economy rather than higher classes where feasible
 - e. choose more efficient routes and/or aircraft where possible
- 7.8. Low emission travel options (b and c in the list above) should be used wherever possible, subject to approval by the relevant budget-holder or funding body and taking account of the total financial and staff time cost for the complete end-to-end journey. For further guidance please visit the Sustainability SharePoint site.

Travel management company

- 7.9. The University has a contracted Travel Management Company (TMC) for the purchase of all University travel requirements.
- 7.10. The contracted TMC offers a range of benefits:
- a. The TMC offers a reactive emergency response where an incident has occurred, helping the University fulfil its duty of care to those travelling on its behalf.
 - b. The TMC has access to a wider range of ticket rates and options (such as more flexible 'academic fares' and/or 'charity fares') than can be found through internet searches, including exclusive discounts for the University sector, and so will try to price match any fares found elsewhere.
 - c. The TMC can advise on travel to Sanctioned Countries or Countries where the Foreign Commonwealth Office has given travel advice.
 - d. The TMC protects the University from incurring tour operators' liability under The Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018 – meaning that duties to provide information and emergency response service would be met by the TMC, which has the capability and expertise to deliver them on a 24/7 basis. The University is not able to provide this service. This is a particularly important consideration where the University organises field trips and inclusive travel arrangements on behalf of students and staff, where the TMC is better placed to arrange travel.

- 7.11. For these reasons the Travel Management Company must be used for all approved travel and accommodation requirements, unless the required itinerary can only be arranged by an alternative method, or unless agreed otherwise by the Director of Procurement. Colleagues should contact their Head of School or Division if this presents urgent barriers to booking required travel.
- 7.12. The Director of Procurement is responsible for the contract management of the TMC, and may remove or suspend certain services or types from the TMC. This will be communicated to Schools and Divisions via the Business Travel Buyers Guide on the University SharePoint site: Finance Services - Buying business travel \(sharepoint.com\).

Suppliers

- 7.13. MyERP has suppliers set up for most goods and services and these should accommodate the majority of orders. Where a purchase from a supplier not on MyERP is less than £1,000, and it is likely to be a 'one-off' order, a Corporate Credit Card can be used.

Third parties

- 7.14. When making a claim to a third party who have agreed to cover costs, this policy should be applied, rather than the policy of the third party. In these circumstances please be aware of the Anti-Corruption and Bribery Policy.

Foreign currency transactions

- 7.15. Where claims are submitted for foreign currency transactions, the total amount to be paid, and the currency in which that payment is to be made must be clearly stated.

- 7.16. Expenses claims can be submitted in MyERP in the currency in which they were submitted, with an accurate, automated conversion. This facility should be used where possible.
- 7.17. All claims for expenditure in a different currency to that of the payment request should detail all currency conversions as well as the exact amount in the requested currency. To evidence this, all claims should include proof of the conversion rate applied – e.g. receipts showing a GBP cost, bank/card statements, or evidence from a reputable exchange rate conversion website/service or Bureau de Change.
- 7.18. Finance Team staff may request personal credit card or bank statements as evidence of exchange rates, in addition to the original receipts.

8. Making or authorising a claim

Points for claimants to be aware of

- 8.1. Claims should be submitted at the earliest opportunity and no later than 8 weeks after the expense has been incurred if possible. In any event, claims must be submitted within the tax and financial year to which they relate, or before the grant funding end date (dependant on the funding source). Where advance travel or accommodation is to be claimed as an expense, the above principle applies from the date that the event occurs.
- 8.2. The University asks that an expense claim should be submitted no later than 8 weeks after the expense has been incurred. To ensure timely and accurate processing of expense claims, the following guidelines must be adhered to:
 - a. Where an expense such as a travel booking or a conference registration (or similar), has been incurred in advance of the date of travel/event, the 8-week window will begin from this date of travel/event. In these circumstances, it is normally preferable for these payments to be made using a purchasing card or via the University's travel booking agent, currently Key Travel.
 - b. All expense claims, including mileage claims, should therefore detail the date on which they were incurred and the date of the travel/event if applicable. Claims submitted after the 8 weeks will only be paid following a satisfactory explanation.

- c. In order to support arrangements for financial year-end, claims should be within the tax and financial year to which they relate wherever possible – Claims relating to dates up until the end of June of each year must be submitted before the end of that academic year, while claims relating to later dates should also be submitted in the same academic year wherever possible.

- 8.3. Where the Budget Holder claims expenses against their own budget, they should seek approval from their Line Manager or School Manager.
- 8.4. The relevant Budget Holder for the funding source will check the claim to ensure that the expense claim, travel arrangements etc. are appropriate to the University's needs before authorising the claim.
- 8.5. Claims can only be reimbursed once the event (e.g. travel or meeting) has taken place. Schools and Divisions should make arrangements to support requisitioning for those without access to MyERP, to avoid individuals having to incur costs themselves and reclaim them through the expense claim process.

Appendix 1: Frequently asked questions

1. Discretionary funding

1.1. Question: The expenses/costs are being funded from a discretionary fund, why can't I purchase what I want?

1.2. Answer: The Financial Regulations and Travel and Expenses Policy apply to all expenditure and payments regardless of the source of funding. Discretionary funding accounts in particular are donations made to the University and not to individuals for their personal use. The policy also applies to consultancy income, general research accounts, etc.

1.3. Question: To whom does this Policy apply?

1.4. Answer: This policy applies to all staff, all students and any persons carrying out University of Bristol-related activity. This includes:

- a. Hourly Paid Teachers
- b. Honorary Staff
- c. Demonstrators
- d. Research Visitors
- e. Casual Staff e.g. fee claim basis
- f. Students on placement
- g. Visiting Academics
- h. Contractors and Associates

1.5. This policy applies to all University expenditure, and any individuals the expenditure relates to. If you have any queries, contact Procurement at procurement-office@bristol.ac.uk

2. University activity

2.1. Question: What is University activity?

- 2.2. Answer: University activity is deemed to be 'where the event/activity is necessary for the promotion of University business'. The core University business activities are teaching, research and associated administration.

3. Obtaining receipts

3.1. Question: Should receipts be kept? What do I do if the vendor does not issue receipts?

- 3.2. Answer: Your rights to a receipt are unaffected by the payment method, e.g. contactless debit/credit card payment. Where receipts are in a foreign language or illegible, claimants should write a brief description of the expenditure on the back of the receipt to enable the claim to be processed more quickly.

- 3.3. There are some services that the Travel Management Company do not currently provide, these include:

- a. Oyster cards /contactless cards for London Underground/light rail/busses or equivalent. This can be topped up via a Corporate Credit Card payment (for Business Oyster Card only) or costs claimed back via an expense claim.
- b. Booking a venue as part of hosting a conference in Bristol – please see the process for booking conference venues.
- c. Attending a conference where a discounted rate is provided by the organiser and direct booking is required, however this must still be within the limits stated in the policy.
- d. Booking field trips - group student travel is not in scope of the Travel Management Company contract. Bookings of this type should go directly to suppliers who are experts in this area.
- e. Travel to certain countries due to external limitations imposed by those countries. The Travel Management Company will be able to advise if they are unable to book your travel.

- f. The Travel Management Company may not be able to book some non-standard travel options (e.g. helicopter) or certain locations, they will be able to advise if they are unable to book your travel.

4. Reclaiming travel costs

- 4.1. Question: I have booked and paid for flights, accommodation and other associated costs in advance of travelling; can I reclaim the costs in advance of the travel date?
- 4.2. Answer: Claims cannot be submitted before the travel has occurred. This principle applies to any other items paid for in advance of receipt of the service.
- 4.3. The above is mandatory in order to avoid potentially fraudulent activities and poor auditing practice. For instance, if paid for personally and claimed on expenses, there is an opportunity to cancel the booking and the University would not be automatically reimbursed.
- 4.4. The University's contracted supplier can be used for all advance travel bookings, this allows booking via a Purchase Order and avoids the need for individuals to incur costs personally and reclaim them at a later date. Corporate Credit Cards can also be used in instances where suppliers are not available on MyERP.
- 4.5. Where staff or Postgraduate Students do not have access to place requisitions, Schools should make arrangements for supporting this activity rather than forcing personal expenditure and instances of being out of pocket for potentially long periods of time.
- 4.6. Question: What costs can I claim when travelling to a meeting or temporary workplace from home?
- 4.7. Answer: All reasonable additional business travel costs for journeys that do not start or end at your normal place of work will be considered allowable for reimbursement.
- Example 1: An employee lives in Bath, works in Bristol, but is travelling to London for a meeting. It is more practical to travel straight to London rather than go to Bristol first. Therefore, the distance from Bath to London is allowed for reimbursement. If the employee were to travel to work in Bristol first this would be classed as home to work travel and would not be claimable, however the full cost from Bristol to London would be.

- Example 2: An employee lives in Swindon and travels to work by train to Bristol at a daily cost of £30. One day they need to travel to a temporary workplace or meeting in Newport, travelling directly from home at a cost of £34. They can claim the full cost of £34.
- Example 3: An employee has a permanent workplace in Bristol. One day they need to drive from home to a temporary workplace in Langford to work. They are entitled to claim for the full cost of the journey from home to Langford because it is a journey to a temporary workplace. Mileage can also be claimed for collecting or dropping off other relevant parties.
- Example 4: An employee lives in Keynsham with an office based in Bristol. They are not required to be on call and have not agreed an exceptional payment with their Head of School/ Divisional Head and HR before travelling. They cannot claim their commute to and from their office base as the Travel and Expenses policy does not cover ordinary commuting.

- 4.8. These example questions may help you to consider whether your planned event is an allowable expense.

5. Social events/outside of work

- 5.1. Question: I want to organise a monthly or quarterly team lunch for my team. Can I claim our team lunch as an expense?
- 5.2. Answer: Social events must be annual events that are available to all staff, unfortunately a team lunch does not fulfil these criteria.
- 5.3. Question: My team are working late to finish a piece of work. Can I order food and claim it as an expense under the policy?

- 5.4. Answer: Ordering food for late-night work will not be expensed under the policy unless this cost has been agreed with the Head of School / Divisional Head on an exceptional basis.
- 5.5. Question: My research group has just finished a significant research project – can I take them all out to celebrate the success outcome?
- 5.6. Answer: If this is deemed to be a ‘social’ function, without a clear business need, then this will not be refunded within the Travel and Expenses Policy. For further clarification, please contact your Faculty Finance Team and if relevant, review your Funder’s Terms and Conditions.
- 5.7. Question: My team want to organise an away day for business purposes. Is it acceptable to provide members with a meal during or after the event at the same venue?
- 5.8. Answer: The costs of meals provided during or after the event at the same venue are allowable but should be secondary to the event itself. In exceptional circumstances the meal could be at a different venue, but this may create a tax liability.
- 5.9. Question: A member of the team is leaving, can I take them out for a drink/meal to mark the occasion?
- 5.10. Answer: Social events must be annual events that are available to all staff, unfortunately a leaving event would not fulfil these criteria.

6. Catering

- 6.1. Question: An external team of five is coming to Bristol for a meeting with my three-person team, can I order catering for our meeting?
- 6.2. Answer: As outlined in the policy, there must be a ‘reasonably equal ratio’ of University staff to visitors. The ratio does not exceed 2:1, therefore it will not be reported as a taxable expense and can be refunded within the Travel and Expenses Policy. The names of all individuals attending the meeting (both internal and external) must be stated on any reimbursement claim and other associated documentation for any external venues used/meetings held.

6.3. Question: An external partner is sending two of their staff to Bristol for a meeting with my team, which comprises nine staff. Can I order catering for our meeting?

6.4. Answer: As outlined in the policy, there must be a 'reasonably equal ratio' of University staff to visitors. In this instance, the ratio exceeds 2:1. This means this will be reported as a taxable expense and will not be refunded within the Travel and Expenses Policy.

7. Food/meals expenditure

7.1. Question: When will expenditure on meals result in a tax charge?

7.2. Answer: In most scenarios allowable by the policy, the provision of a meal will not result in a tax liability, for example subsistence claims, staff annual events such as Christmas events available to all staff at one location/School/Division, entertaining visitors to the University where the ratio of staff to visitors is less than 2:1 or meals provided at the same venue as an away day. Tax will be chargeable in other cases where meals are provided in public restaurants, for example where used to facilitate business meetings, entertaining visitors where the ratio of staff to visitors is greater than 2:1, or for any staff social functions not covered by the annual events exemption. This is a complex area and further detailed guidance and advice can be provided via your local Faculty Finance Team or via the Finance Services Tax Team.

7.3. Question: If a meal allowable under the policy is subject to tax, who suffers the charge and how is the charge calculated?

7.4. Answer: If a meal is provided to a member of staff in accordance with the policy, the University will not expect the individual concerned to incur any tax cost payable. The University has agreed with HMRC a mechanism whereby the relevant tax and national insurance cost will be paid by the University direct. This charge, which will be added to the same budget code as the meal by the Finance Services Tax Team, will vary depending upon whether the members of staff concerned are basic rate or higher tax payers. In most cases it will be practical and acceptable to use an averaging formula that will add approximately a ~50% tax charge on top of the cost of the meals incurred.

8. Safety and health: Food

8.1. How do I ensure that food suppliers are safe?

- 8.2. Safety and Health Services advice when purchasing food and drink from external sources instead of University delivered/contracted catering.
- 8.3. Please ensure food and drink is purchased at a reputable supplier where there are adequate standards of food hygiene. Suppliers should have registered premises and should have scored ideally 4 or 5 stars out of 5 (and a minimum of 3 stars) on the FSA's Food Hygiene ratings database.
- 8.4. Food should be provided to consumers in the packaging that it was purchased and should have adequate labelling of ingredients detailing potential allergens. Where food does not have packaging (e.g. fruit), ensure hand washing is in place prior to handling.
- 8.5. Food should not be prepared by staff under any circumstances. This includes, heating, mixing, making sandwiches etc.
- 8.6. If food is purchased in advance and requires refrigeration (see packaging) it must be kept in a suitable refrigerator at 5°C or lower until required. Food must never be used past any date codes (e.g. use by or best before). High risk food (usually food which needs to be kept chilled) on display ready to be consumed (e.g. as part of a buffet) must not be out of refrigeration for more than 4 hours. After this time, the food should be disposed of.
- 8.7. Please remember the ~50% additional tax charge, as well as the cost of staff time required to purchase food and drink and consider whether there is a true cost saving against the University-contracted caterers. For general guidance, visit the Food Standards Agency website.

9. IT purchases: Outside of country

- 9.1. Question: I am in a foreign country and my laptop has broken but is essential for me to do my work. Can I purchase a new one and claim back on expenses?
- 9.2. Answer: All computer equipment and accessories should normally be purchased through IT Services. In exceptional circumstances, such as this, then this will be considered allowable and will be reimbursed. On your return, IT services will need to be notified of the purchase for asset tagging and future maintenance purposes.

10. Professional membership fees

10.1. Question: When can Professional Membership Fees for individuals be funded by the University?

10.2. Answer: Where Membership is a prerequisite and ongoing requirement of the duties that the individual performs on behalf of the University within their role. For example, if the individual could no longer perform the duties required of them if membership ceased, the membership is a requirement of the role. In these circumstances the University would fund the membership fees.

10.3. Question: How should I claim for the cost of membership fees in conjunction with a cost saving against a conference fee or course registration?

10.4. Answer: Where a direct saving can be demonstrated against an individual course registration or conference fee, the total cost of the membership should be claimed within the same claim. In this instance, the combined price of the membership fee and the conference/course fee should be equal to or less than the individual non-member conference/course fee. Where a saving is planned across a number of events, the direct saving against each event should be claimed within the same claim. For example, where the membership fee is £100 and a £60 saving can be shown against the first event, claim £60 of the membership with the first event, then claim the remaining balance with savings made against subsequent events until the whole amount has been reimbursed.

11. Childcare/caring costs

11.1. Question: Under what circumstances can childcare/caring costs be claimed?

11.2. Answer: Please note all claims are subject to a maximum of £150. Routine childcare or caring costs cannot be claimed. Claims can only be made for costs to allow you to attend conferences or training outside your normal working days/hours. Both childcare and care for vulnerable adults is included; care for pets is excluded.

11.3. Types of training for which childcare/caring costs may be covered:

- a. Formal training course or any other activity which is designed to 'impart, instil, improve or reinforce (certain) knowledge, skills or personal qualities.'
- b. Self-tuition packages, computer based training, distance learning, work experience or work placement and informal teach-ins are all acceptable as are more formal classroom based methods.
- c. Training can be delivered internally or externally, on a part-time or full-time basis .
- d. It is not essential that the skills acquired should be immediately needed for the duties of the employment. It is sufficient that the skills are likely to prove useful to the employee when performing the duties.
- e. A wide range of practical and/or theoretical skills will qualify for exemption so long as the skills are relevant to the employee.

11.4. This applies only to work related training (including academic conferences and professional services conferences), not business trips generally.

11.5. Exceptionally these costs can be claimed in relation to other University activities e.g. work with international collaborators, to conduct fieldwork, and to enable travel for research. In these cases, a tax charge will be incurred.

11.6. Please note that claims should be submitted as an online expense claim on MyERP in the same way as all other staff expenses. If in doubt, please consult with your School Manager or Divisional Head.

12. Additional travel information

Spouse/partner expenses

- 12.1. If there is a need for the employee to be accompanied by an individual (for example health or mobility needs), the University will reimburse expenses for both the employee and the individual.
- 12.2. In these circumstances approval must be obtained in writing from the School Manager/Divisional Head prior to any travel bookings relating to the trip being made. These costs may also be reclaimable through the Access to Work Scheme.
- 12.3. Please attach the written approval to the claim. Please remember to apply for University Travel Insurance prior to travelling.

Holidays linked to a university trip

- 12.4. Where an employee takes holiday linked to a University trip, the University will reimburse travel up to the amount that it would have cost had the employee travelled at the times, and from the destinations, required to complete the University activity only. Please provide evidence of this when claiming.

- 12.5. Costs will not be reimbursed for the days whilst on holiday linked to the trip. The University may be able to cover a limited period of personal travel insurance in conjunction with an approved business trip.
- 12.6. Please see University Travel Insurance for more information

Social staff functions (including Christmas parties)

Table 38: Social staff functions allowable costs

Allowable Cost?	Comments
Yes	These must be annual events, such as Christmas parties, that are available to all staff at one location/School/Division. The total cost of staff parties or functions must not exceed £150 per person per year, as per HMRC regulations. Any one function should not exceed £40 per person. The usual practice is for colleagues to make a contribution towards cost.

Meetings: Core hours (university employees only)

Table 39: Meetings, core hours: university employees only allowable costs

Allowable Cost?	Comments
Yes, when this benefits the University's objectives	University Schools and Divisions are able to order catering for exceptional staff events where this supports the University's Vision and Strategy. Catering cannot be booked for ordinary business meetings. The total cost of catered events should not exceed £20 per person per event. Catering costs should generally not exceed £150 per person per year (per Division/Department). Please follow the guidance published in the How To Buy Guide for Delivered Catering Catering can be purchased where it supports the University's objectives and can be funded from existing budgets.

	Schools and Divisions must fund all delivered catering from existing budgets under their control (i.e. there is no additional central budget). Food should not be ordered for ordinary business meetings such as regular team meetings. Spend on delivered catering is monitored by the University Procurement Team for compliance with this policy. Within the core hours, University catering suppliers should be used for all catering requirements unless there is a clear University need to justify the use of alternative facilities. Orders for Delivered Catering should be made through the eServices function of the University's electronic marketplace.

Allowable Cost?	Comments
Yes, when this benefits the University's objectives	University Heads of School/Department are empowered to decide whether catering would benefit the delivery of the University Vision and Strategy. Issues that should be taken into consideration include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Where catering is integral to the success of the event (e.g. where a deliberate effort is being made to foster good relations, and/or to encourage participants to return to an in-person working environment). b) The number of people participating (e.g. catering is likely to be more beneficial to larger rather than smaller events). c) The time of day. d) The length of the event. e) Value for money, and keeping discretionary costs of a minimum. f) Avoiding expensive delivery charges associated with meetings of small numbers of people

	g) Whether the intended outcomes could be better achieved without the provision of food at an event.

Allowable Cost?	Comments
Yes, when this benefits the University's objectives	Food and drink should only be purchased from local shops when Delivered Catering is not available, or it can be justified on a cost saving basis. Please note that there is a specific contracted supplier available for 'cornershop' services. Individuals purchasing refreshments must be able to demonstrate that a suitable event has taken place (for example an agenda of a staff conference or similar event). Food not purchased through University Catering may incur a c. 50% tax charge, which will be charged to the original funding source. If the terms and conditions of the funding source will not allow such a tax charge, an alternative funding source must be identified by the person incurring the cost; the default will be a School/Division main core fund. Please state 'University employees only' and the number that attended on the claim.

Table 42: Meetings outside core hours: University employees only allowable costs

Allowable Cost?	Comments
No	This is not an allowable cost

Meetings: External visitors

Table 43: Meeting with external visitor's allowable costs

Allowable Cost?	Comments
Yes	Where appropriate and practical, University approved catering facilities should be used for entertaining visitors. Where it is outside of core hours or a more appropriate venue is required, then the costs can be reclaimed for the business meeting. Costs should be appropriate for the University requirement and claims that are considered excessive will be referred to the Head of School/Divisional Head. There must be a 'reasonably equal ratio' of University staff to visitors. If this exceeds 2:1, then it will be reported as a taxable expense. The impact of this is a c.50% increase in cost to the Budget Code charged. The names of all individuals attending the meeting (both internal and external) must be stated on any reimbursement claim and other associated documentation for any external venues used/meetings held.

Tips/gratuities

Table 44: Tips and gratuities allowable costs

If in doubt, please consult with your School Manager or Divisional Head.

	Claims are subject to a maximum of £150 per day per training or conference event As with any training, every effort should be made by you and your line manager to accommodate it within your normal working hours to avoid extra costs or personal inconvenience. Receipts must be submitted when claiming as per HMRC guidance. As such, the care should be provided by a registered business in this instance. Exceptionally these costs can be claimed in relation to other University activities e.g. work with international collaborators, to conduct fieldwork, and to enable travel for research. In these cases, a tax charge will be incurred. Such cases must be approved by the relevant Head of School/Divisional Head.
