

Department of History: Past Events

Departmental Seminars 2010-2011

All departmental seminars will commence at 4.15pm, and be held in Lecture Room Eight behind 19 Woodland Road. They will finish by 6pm, with refreshments after the seminar in the School Common Room at 11 Woodland Road.

Staff clusters will continue to take place in the rooms of members, and postgraduate training sessions in LR8. The latter will follow the same timetable as the seminars, but the clusters may meet at other times of day.

Autumn Term 2010

- 12 October: Postgraduate Profile of Department
- 19 October: Visiting Speaker: Professor John Gillingham, "War and the Enslavement of Women and Children in Medieval Europe"
- 26 October: Staff Clusters/PG Training
- 2 November: Postgraduate: Richard Stone, "Bristol and the Atlantic World 1560-1689"
- 9 November: Visiting Speaker: Professor Steve Hindle (Warwick University), "'The Idiocy of Rural Life': Is Class a Viable Category of Historical Analysis for Seventeenth-Century Rural England?"
- 16 November: Visiting Speaker: Dr. Jane Caplan, "Your Papers Please! Proving and Policing Identity in Nazi Germany"
- 23 November: Postgraduate: Steve Biddlecombe, "Baldric of Bourgueil and the Loire Valley Litterati"
- 30 November: School Seminar: "Britishness", hosted by Historical Studies and chaired by Ronald Hutton, with Brendan Smith, Dot Rowe (History of Art), David Punter (English) and Jo Carruthers (English) speaking
- 7 December: Staff Clusters/PG Training
- 14 December: PG Training

Spring term

- 18 January: Visiting Speaker: Dr. Ian McBride, "The Burden of the Past: History, Memory and the Northern Ireland Troubles"
- 25 January: Staff Clusters/PG Training
- 1 February: School Seminar hosted by the Department of English (tba)
- 8 February: Member of History staff: Richard Sheldon, "Can We Feed the Starving Millions? Economics, Morals and Politics c. 1945 – 1980"
- 15 February: Member of History staff: Robert Bickers (title tba)
- 22 February: Staff Clusters / PG Training
- 1 March: School Seminar, on Teaching Practices
- 8 March: Member of History staff: Chris Manias, "Collaborating and Competing over Fossils: International Palaeontology in the Early Twentieth Century"

- 15 March: Member of History staff Member: Ian Wei, "Academic Voices and the Authority of the University - Medieval and Modern"
- 22 March: History staff members: Kirsty Reid and Tim Cole and Rhian Tritton of the SS Great Britain, "Collaborative Histories: The SS Great Britain and Bristol Zoo"

For more information please contact Professor Ronald