

Department of History: Past Events

Seminar Programme 2006/2007

Unless otherwise notified all seminars take place in Link Room 1, 9-11 Woodland Road at 4.15. Refreshments are served afterwards in the School's Junior Common Room at the rear of 11 Woodland Rd. All are welcome.

Spring Term 2007

- Tuesday 23 January
Mark Kauntze, 'Cosmology and censorship in the twelfth century.'
- Tuesday 30 January
School Seminar: Visitor 3 – Historical Studies
Prof. David Cannadine, 'The National Portrait Gallery in Historical Perspective'
(Enderby Room, Physics Building, Tyndalls Avenue)
Unfortunately this seminar has had to be cancelled
- Tuesday 6 February
Dr Richard Sheldon, 'The Rights of Man and the right to eat: Debating Subsistence Rights in the 1790s.'
Please note that this seminar will begin at 5 o'clock, not at 4.15 as usual
- Tuesday 20 February
Prof. Roger Middleton, '"There is No Alternative", or was there?: Benchmarking the Thatcher Years'
- Tuesday 6 March
Ph.D. students in 2nd year of research
- Tuesday 20 March
Marcus Bull, 'The Gesta Francorum and the Historiography of the First Crusade'

Autumn Term 2006

- Tuesday 10 October
Presentations by new Ph.D. students
- Tuesday 24 Oct
Prof. Ronald Hutton, 'The Rediscovery of the British Druids'
- Tuesday 31 October
School Seminar: Panel 1 – Historical Studies
'Visual Culture and the Humanities', Josie McLellan (Chair), Tim Cole, Pamela King, Shelley Hales, and John Kieschnick
(Enderby Room, Physics Building, Tyndalls Avenue)
- Tuesday 7 November
Dr Kirsty Reid, 'Convict ballads, empire and popular culture in nineteenth-century Britain'
- Tuesday 21 November
Madelaine Harwood, 'Sensationalism in 16th and 17th Century Witchcraft Drama'

- Tuesday 5 December

Jennifer Hallett, 'Images of Paganism in Victorian and Edwardian England'

For more information please contact Dr Brendan Smith.

\(Back to top\)