

WELCOME, STUDENTS FROM GHANA

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers around 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Nearly 33% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have around 30 students from Ghana currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 185 countries, speaking 90 languages.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include African & Caribbean Society and many more.

Bristol Students' Union runs regular events, starting from Welcome Week, for you to find friends and build your community.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes more than 100 graduates in Ghana. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including GCB Bank, Ghana Education Service, Environmental Protection Agency, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the University of Ghana.

'I was drawn to Bristol for its outstanding academic reputation. The University's commitment to research excellence and innovative teaching methods resonated with me. Positive word-of-mouth recommendations from current students and alumni affirmed Bristol's strong community and supportive environment.'
