

WELCOME, STUDENTS FROM NIGERIA

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers around 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Nearly 33% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have around 70 students from Nigeria currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 185 countries, speaking 90 languages.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include African & Caribbean Society and many more.

Bristol Students' Union runs regular events, starting from Welcome Week, for you to find friends and build your community.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes more than 350 graduates in Nigeria. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including National Veterinary Research Institute, eHealth Africa, World Bank Nigeria, the Ministry of Education, Niger State Women's Commission, the Ministry of Defence, the Ministry of Education and the Federal Government of Nigeria.

'Bristol felt like a cosy city with so many attractions, irrespective of your interests and personality. You are surrounded by history, arts, and wonderful architecture. It feels like a home away from home almost instantly.'

APPLYING TO BRISTOL

Entry requirements

We accept a wide range of qualifications. You can find specific entry requirements on individual course pages online. The table below will give you an idea of the typical requirements for each study level.

Please contact us to check your specific entry requirements and ask any questions before applying.

English language requirements

You will need to show proof of your English language ability. We accept a wide range of qualifications and tests which are listed on our English language profile pages. Courses have different requirements, and more information can be found on our course pages online.

If you have studied at a Nigerian high school or university, you may be exempt from having to provide evidence of English language ability. The WAEC can also be used to meet the English language requirements. Find out more on our English language profile pages.
