

Welcome, students from Hong Kong

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers around 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Over 33% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have more than 500 students from Hong Kong currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 185 countries, speaking over 90 languages. There is a range of shops and restaurants where East Asian food is available, as well as many other global cuisines.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include HKPASS (Hong Kong Public Affairs and Social Service Society), Asian Society and many more.

Bristol Students' Union runs regular events, starting from Welcome Week, for you to find friends and build your community.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes more than 2,500 graduates in Hong Kong. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including AIA International Limited, Hang Seng Bank, the Hong Kong Government, PwC, The New York Times, Deloitte, Goldman Sachs, UBS, J.P. Morgan and a range of prestigious universities.

'Bristol is a lively city where you can always find something interesting to do. The University has provided an excellent academic platform for me to explore my passion in research, education and psychology.'
