

Welcome, students from Kenya

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers around 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Over 33% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have around 60 students from Kenya currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 185 countries, speaking over 90 languages. There are a number of restaurants where East African food is available.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include African & Caribbean Society, East African Society and many more.

Bristol Students' Union runs regular events, starting from Welcome Week, for you to find friends and build your community.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes more than 300 graduates in Kenya. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including Ericsson, the Government of Kenya, Wildlife Direct, Grant Thornton, the Kenya Embassy, Moi University, PwC, the University of Nairobi and Anjarwalla & Khanna.

'I enjoyed interacting with my classmates and my lecturers. Being surrounded by supportive people made the experience easier and more enjoyable. The lecturers went above and beyond to help in our studies. I left with not only a degree but also many memories and experiences that I will forever cherish.'
