

Welcome, students from Saudi Arabia

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers around 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Over 33% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have around 180 students from Saudi Arabia currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 185 countries, speaking 90 languages. International cuisine and halal food is widely available.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include Saudi Society, Arab Society and many more.

Bristol Students' Union runs regular events, starting from Welcome Week, for you to find friends and build your community.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes around 350 graduates in Saudi Arabia. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including the Ministry of Health, the British Council, the Royal Commission, Bristol Royal Infirmary, the Ministry of Defence, J.P. Morgan, Allen & Overy LLP and a range of prestigious universities..

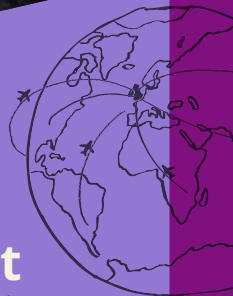

'Bristol is a culturally diverse city, which I found particularly appealing as an international student. Its rich history, stunning architecture, and dynamic arts scene create a unique atmosphere.'
