

Welcome, students from Vietnam

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers around 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Over 33% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have more than 60 students from Vietnam currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 185 countries, speaking 90 languages. There is a range of shops and restaurants where Vietnamese and other Southeast Asian food is available.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include Asian Society and many more.

Bristol Students' Union runs regular events, starting from Welcome Week, for you to find friends and build your community.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes around 200 graduates in Vietnam. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including PwC Vietnam, AVSE Global, Climate Arc, Hanoi University of Science and Technology (HUST), VPBank and the National Economics University (Vietnam).

'Out of all the cities I had been to in the UK, Bristol just hits different. You can find a community to belong to in Bristol regardless of your background, and it just speaks volumes about how amazingly diverse this city is.'
