

Welcome, students from Sri Lanka

Find out how Bristol gives you more during your studies, in your city life and in your career.

Get more for your future

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol offers nearly 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

Our teaching is grounded in world-leading research and informed by real-life insight. Your career is built into your degree, giving you extensive careers support, skills development programmes and industry-relevant experience.

A degree from Bristol carries global recognition, giving it long term value wherever your future takes you. Our international alumni network includes around 200 graduates in Sri Lanka. Bristol graduates are employed at organisations including the Embassy of Sri Lanka, the National Institute of Education, the Cabinet Office, Capital Alliance, Bank of Canada and a range of prestigious universities.

Get more from your community

The university is home to more than 30,000 students, with over 30% from outside the UK. We have almost 50 students from Sri Lanka currently studying here, and we would love for you to join us.

Bristol's Global Lounge brings our community together through cultural events, language cafés and free social activities. Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 300+ student groups include the Sri Lankan Society, Asian Society and many more.

Get more from your city

Just 90 minutes from London, Bristol is a friendly, vibrant city with a distinctive character and rich history. Recognised as one of the UK's most exciting places to live and study in, it's known for its diverse culture, international community and creative atmosphere. You can explore Bristol's celebrated food scene while also finding a range of shops and restaurants where Sri Lankan and other South Asian food is available.

The University of Bristol has a perfect balance of academic excellence and great student life. The International Office helped answer questions about moving and visas. Welcome events felt very inclusive and encouraged me to get involved. Societies have allowed me to find my own community and meet a lot of new people. ”
