WELCOME, STUDENTS FROM TAIWAN

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise
The University offers over 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community
Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Around 28% of our students come from outside the UK.

Nearly 100 students from Taiwan currently study here, and we would love for you to join us.

A diverse city
Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 187 countries, speaking 91 languages. There is a range of shops and restaurants where Taiwanese and other East Asian food is available.

A world of opportunities
You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol’s Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include the Taiwanese Society, Asian Society, International Students’ Network and many more.

Inspirational alumni
Our international alumni network includes over 1,000 graduates in Taiwan. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including Apple Asia LLC, the Taiwanese Government, Marvell, United Daily News Group, and a range of prestigious universities and schools.

‘Bristol is a beautiful and multicultural city, and it’s full of traditional and contemporary art. The countryside around the city is lovely during spring and summer – making for a great cycling trip.’
