WELCOME, STUDENTS FROM VIETNAM

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise
The University offers over 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community
Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Around 28% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have around 40 students from Vietnam currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city
Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 187 countries, speaking 91 languages. There is a range of shops and restaurants where Vietnamese and other Southeast Asian food is available.

A world of opportunities
You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol’s Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include the Asian Society, Vietnamese Society, International Students’ Network and many more.

Inspirational alumni
Our international alumni network includes over 160 graduates in Vietnam. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including PwC, AEG Vietnam and International House Vietnam.

English language requirements
If your first language is not English, you will need to show proof of your English language ability. We accept a wide range of qualifications and tests. Different courses need different English language levels. Specific requirements are listed on individual course pages online.

Scholarships
Our Think Big scholarship scheme supports international students from around the world. We are investing £3 million in University of Bristol scholarships for overseas students in 2024.

Other funding opportunities may be available from partners and sponsors.
