Casimir Ludwig – Experimental Psychology

- In general: relation between multidimensional variable and some categorical variable (e.g. condition, discrete decision)

  - Noise classification methods in visual psychophysics

  - Movement data: eye tracking, motion capture

  - Pupillometry