

‘Comparative Law, the Courts and the influence of Europe’

Annual Seminar of the British Association of Comparative Law
University of York in The Lakehouse, RCH248&250
1 September 2015
9.30-12.30

Welcome

President of BACL, Professor Paula Giliker, and sponsors, Intersentia.

Session 1: Comparative law, the courts and the influence of Europe – An academic perspective. (9.45-10.45)

Professor Mathias Siems (University of Durham), ‘Cross-citation between the Supreme Courts in Europe’.

Discussant: Professor Keith Stanton (University of Bristol)

COFFEE BREAK (kindly sponsored by Intersentia)

Session 2: Comparative law, the courts and the influence of Europe – A judicial perspective. (11.15-12.15)

Lady Justice Arden DBE (Court of Appeal of England and Wales), title to be confirmed.

Concluding remarks

This event is free and all are welcome to attend. Please address any enquiries to the Secretary of BACL, Claudina Richards (c.richards@uea.ac.uk).

