

Department of Religion and Theology Research Seminar Series 2025-26

Time: Tuesdays 3:30-5:00pm

Place: ARTS Complex Room
G.H01 followed by drinks
(entry 7 Woodland Road)

30 September
Seiriol Morgan, University of Bristol
On Augustine on Understanding Evil

21 October
Sujatha Meegama, Courtauld Institute of Art
Envisioning Kingship in Sixteenth-century Sri Lanka

11 November
Sigbjørn Sønnesyn, University of Bristol
Meaning, Intelligibility, and Fusing Horizons: Medieval Thought as a Case Study

25 November
Stefan Baums, Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich
Gandhāran Buddhist Manuscripts and Inscriptions: Recent Discoveries and Field Work

27 January
[to be confirmed]

10 February
Channa Li, Institut für Kultur- und Geistes-geschichte Asiens (the Austrian Academy of Sciences)
Maitreya's Long Bodhisattva Journey vs. Śākyamuni's Swift Attainment

10 March
Tasia Scrutton, University of Leeds
Can scrupulosity be spiritually innocent?

14 April
Wendi Adamek, University of Calgary
Enshrined Relics, Corpse-Exposure and the Baoshan Nun
Sengshun (555-639)

Image: Attributed to Master Heinrich of Constance German ca. 1310–20. The Metropolitan Museum of Art (open access)