Inflation statement

The University of Bristol's home undergraduate tuition fees for 2025/26 are currently set at £9535 for the majority of our programmes. This is in line with the upper limit allowed by the government. If the government lifts the limit it is likely that the University will raise fees to reflect this. Students who enrol in 2025/26 should be aware that their fees in subsequent years could rise in line with the Government's maximum permitted increase.
