The election of the Chair or Vice-Chair shall normally take place at the first Board of Trustees meeting of the Board of Trustees which takes place in the academic year in which the term of office of the current Chair or Vice-Chair (as the case may be) is due to expire. The term of office of the Chair or Vice-Chair (as the case may be) shall commence on the expiry of their respective predecessor's term of office.

The role of the Vice-Chair is to chair meetings of the Board of Trustees in the Chair’s absence, and to provide other assistance to the Chair as required.

Where necessary for the good of the University the Chair considers that it is necessary or expedient in the best interests of the University, the Chair or she may take decisions on behalf of the Board of Trustees between meetings of the Board of Trustees and will report such decisions to the next such meeting.

Notice of business
The agenda and papers for business at a Board of Trustees meeting will, whenever possible, be sent to members seven days in advance of the meeting. No substantive matter will be debated by the Board of Trustees without at least three days’ notice, unless the Board of Trustees declares the business to be urgent by a two thirds majority of those present.

Questions from members of the Board of Trustees
Members of the Board of Trustees may submit to the Secretary written questions addressed to the Vice-Chancellor or other University officers, to be placed on the agenda of a Board of Trustees meeting. Ordinance 3 Board of Trustees

Procedure

Chair and Vice-Chair
The Chair and Vice-Chair will be elected by the Board of Trustees from among the Lay Trustees. The Chair and Vice-Chair shall usually serve for an initial period of three years but their terms of office shall, whenever practicable be staggered to avoid their terms expiring at the same time (and the determination of the start and expiry of their terms of office shall be made by the Board of Trustees). The Chair and Vice-Chair may be considered for re-election for two further periods of up to three years each.

The election of the Chair or Vice-Chair shall normally take place at the first meeting of the of the Board of Trustees which takes place in the academic year in which the term of office of the current Chair or Vice-Chair (as the case may be) is due to expire. The term of office of the Chair or Vice-Chair (as the case may be) shall commence on the expiry of their respective predecessor's term of office.

The role of the Vice-Chair is to chair meetings of the Board of Trustees in the Chair's absence, and to provide other assistance to the Chair as required.

Where the Chair considers that it is necessary or expedient in the best interests of the University, he or she may take decisions on behalf of the Board of Trustees between meetings of the Board of Trustees and will report such decisions to the next such meeting.

Notice of business
The agenda and papers for business at a Board of Trustees meeting will, whenever possible, be sent to members seven days in advance of the meeting. No substantive matter will be debated by the Board of Trustees without at least three days' notice, unless the Board of Trustees declares the business to be urgent by a two thirds majority of those present.

Questions from members of the Board of Trustees
Members of the Board of Trustees may submit to the Secretary written questions addressed to the Vice-Chancellor or other University officers, to be placed on the agenda of a Board of Trustees meeting. Unless urgent, such questions should be sent in time to allow circulation with the other papers, seven days before the meeting.

Submission of items for discussion
Members of the Board of Trustees may submit to the Secretary items for discussion at a meeting of the Board of Trustees, including proposed motions for debate and decision. Unless urgent, such questions should be sent in time to allow circulation with the other papers, seven days before the meeting. The Board of Trustees may adjourn such items for further information to be obtained.
Debate
The conduct of a debate will be determined by the Chair, who will not unreasonably refuse any member the right to speak. The Chair may require a member to leave a meeting in the event of his or her disruptive behaviour.

Amendments
Suggested amendments to any proposal must be put one at a time, before the debate on the original proposal is concluded. If an amendment is carried, further debate and decision will relate to the amended proposal.

Conflicts of Interest
In the performance of their functions, members of the Board of Trustees and committees of the Board of Trustees and working groups are under an obligation to act in the best interests of the University. If a member has a financial, personal or family interest which might appear to put this obligation at risk, the member should make the conflict known as soon as reasonably practicable to the Chair or Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

Conflict of Interest at a Meeting
When attending meetings of the Board of Trustees or committees or working groups of the Board of Trustees, members who have a financial, personal or family interest in any matter arising shall as soon as practicable disclose the interest. Unless the Chair rules that the interest is not material, the member shall withdraw from the relevant part of the meeting and may not vote on the issue.

These provisions do not normally apply to an interest which arises only because a member is an employee or student at the University. For example, a staff member of the Board of Trustees would not be excluded from discussion of conditions of employment or pay increases relating to all members of the University’s staff, nor would students be excluded from discussion of tuition fees or rent increases in University student accommodation.

However the Chair may rule that the provisions do apply to an interest which concerns a member of staff or student specifically, for example his or her own conditions of employment or pay increase, or a disciplinary matter in which the member of staff or student was directly involved.

Voting
Voting on any issue will be by a show of hands. The Chair may vote, and in the event of a tied vote has the right to exercise a casting vote.

Elections
Elections for the Chair and Vice-Chair and for committee membership will be by show of hands unless a paper ballot is requested by a Board of Trustees member.

Committees
Pursuant to Statute 29.1, the Board of Trustees has established an Audit Committee, a Nominations Committee and a Remuneration Committee.

The University Secretary or one of his or her staff should normally be secretary to the committees of the Board of Trustees established in accordance with Statute 29.1. The Board of Trustees may appoint to committees lay persons who are not members of the Board of Trustees, but chairs of committees of the Board of Trustees should normally be members of the Board of Trustees.

The Chair of the Board of Trustees, having taken account of the needs of the committee and having consulted the relevant committee chair, will consult the Board of Trustees about vacancies on the committees and potentially suitable candidates. The Chair, in consultation with the relevant committee chairs, will make final recommendations for approval by the Board of Trustees.

The Chair of the Board of Trustees and members of the University’s staff are not eligible to be appointed as members of the Audit Committee.

The Vice-Chancellor is not eligible to be appointed as a member of the Remuneration Committee.

Committees of the Board of Trustees shall adhere to any standing orders made by the Board of Trustees, but subject to such standing orders every committee may regulate its own meetings and procedures. Such standing orders shall be deemed to be regulations for the purposes of Statute 29.3.

Custom and precedent
Where no written rules are laid down, custom and precedent will apply to the conduct of business of the Board of Trustees.

Ordinance 3a
